

30 days. Charged with stealing chickens.

Edward Cohen, 444 E. 43d, arrested as keeper of gambling house. Fined $25. Poker.

"Help first, investigation afterward," motto of Capt. Collins, South Chicago, who established relief station in police station to distribute food and clothing to poor of district.

Mrs. Cora Roberts lost $150 in money and checks as she was boarding State st. car last night.

Michael Flannagan, week on police force, arrested "jackroller."

Mrs. Katherine Ahearn, 4518 Cottage Grove av., told Judge La Buy she was a natural born detective. Studying to become a policewoman. Sent to Detention hospital to be examined for insanity.

Police asked to search for Florence Conger, 17, 6400 Dorchester av., who disappeared Wednesday.

Samuel Israelson, 126 W. Locust, jewelry salesman, told police he was robbed of $400 diamond ring and $2 near residence.

Coleman Everett, lawyer, and William Keating, laundryman, arrested on charge of con game. Both refused to discuss case.

Baby girl, wearing pink shawl, found abandoned on sidewalk in front of 3818 S. Wood. Taken to St. Vincent's orphan asylum.

Mrs. Agnes Schaffner, 6344 Normal Blvd., died at Washington Park hospital from blood poisoning. Believed brought on by illegal operation.

Lorado Taft, Chicago sculptor, spoke before employes of Chicago Telephone Co. in art institute. Condemns futurist and cubist art.

Mrs. Leonora Meder, head of city's public welfare dep't, felt insulted when man talked business with her an hour with hat on. "Hats off" signs now up in office.

Board of election commissioners to advertise to obtain clerks and judges for February election.

Postmaster Campbell writing letters to many employes asking them why they should not leave the service because of old age or infirmity. 2 men collapsed when they received them.

Home of Tony Marino, 905 Sedgwick, raided by police. Six men and two women arrested. Detectives found 5 revolvers and sawed-off shotguns and large quantity of ammunition. Judge discharged defendants, saying they had right to keep weapons in home.

Louise Kerter, 3160 N. Halsted, asks Gov. McGovern, Wisconsin, to allow her to take her brother's place in prison. Has 5 years to serve on murder charge.

Albert Fleury, artist who sold painting to city for $25, said artists should sell works to city at cut rate prices.

Abijah Jarman, 5427 University av., sec'y in Hyde Park Y. M. C. A., arrested after making row in Great Northern theater. Fought over seat.

Lawrence Holt, negro, captured after he had struck Mrs. Frank Simes, 3751 Grand Blvd., on head with hammer when she refused to let go of purse.

Council finance committee reduced salary of treasurer from $12,000 to $10,000. To abolish $5,000 job of commissioner of track elevation.

Further action on ordinance giving B. & O. railroad right to build coach yard on right of way not to be taken up till next month.

Police operators complain against Serg't Dubach, South Chicago station, who always leaves window open. Is fresh air fiend.

Gov. Dunne asks kindly consideration of mayor in petition by Bernard Prazil, Bridewell gardener, for increase in pay. Now gets $1,200 year. Action deferred.

Harry Walsh and Hazel Ludlum found dead in rooming house at 1801 W. Lake last night. Gas jet open. Police investigating.

Paul Brimie, 4700 Lamoyne av., filed suit for $5,000 against Mrs. Anna Anderson, 1447 N. 53d ct. Suit