

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Elizabeth, Tenn. — Negro under arrest here admits killing A. G. Gardner, Baltimore, found dead several days ago near Welaka, Fla., and his brother, H. B. Gardner, Springfield, Mass., who is missing.

The Hague. — China, United States and Netherlands, through agreement signed today, pledged to suppression of opium trade and abolition of international traffic in habit-forming drugs.

Abilene, Tex. — Poisoned by bread made with milk from rusty pail, four members of household of J. T. Garrison, farmer, are dead. Four others in serious condition.

Washington. — Senate contingent expense committee decided today to allow no funds at this congress to investigate Illinois and Pennsylvania senatorial campaign expenses.

Washington. — Battleship North Dakota, turbines injured, due at Norfolk Monday for repairs.

Bridgeport, Conn. — Fannie Crosby, blind, famous hymn writer, dead; 95 years old.

Kansas City, Mo. — Four bandit passengers robbed jitney driver and fellow passenger. Loot $9.65.

Washington. — Gov. Woodruff appealed by cable to navy dep't for $10,000 to relieve Manus Samoan Islands natives, homeless as result of hurricane Wednesday.

Washington. — Japanese embassy officially denied published demands by Tokio government upon China, sitting at monopoly of political influence at Peking.

Philadelphia. — U. S. torpedo boat destroyer Winslow launched at Wm. S. Cramp & Sons shipyard.

Quincy, Mass. — Submarine D-2 launched at Fore River shipyards yesterday.

Bridgeburg, Ont. — Military guards stationed at Canadian end of international bridge over Niagara river to prevent any attempt to wreck structure.

Oakland, Cal. — Heads beaten to a pulp with ax or club, bodies of Jacob Vogel, retired capitalist, and wife were found in home today.

Washington. — Pres. Wilson reported urging tariff investigation by federal commission.

Sheboygan, Wis. — 1,100 boys and girls attended public "10-cent" dance given by Mrs. Peter Reiss, society leader, who instructs the children in modern dances free.

Red Wing, Minn. — "Scout passed away. Great grief. Good wishes to all," the wording of cablegram from London friends to Dr. L. E. Clayton, telling of the demise of a fox terrier.

St. Paul. — Stork beat police ambulance by three minutes after ambulance had made a death-defying race to the home of Mrs. John O. Otis.

Amsterdam. — Ocean Steamship Co.'s steamer Alertes was attacked Wednesday while off Maas lightship by German submarine U-2. Escaped.

Panama. — Slight earthquake shock felt throughout canal zone today. Caused no damage.

New York. — Geo. E. Fleming, New York lawyer, who sued Mrs. Jessie R. Bacon, Lincoln, Neb., for $2,500 for alleged services in prospective breach of promise suit, awarded $25 by jury.

Washington. — Starvation indirect cause of many deaths among Indians of Blackfoot reservation in Montana.

Omaha, Neb. — Joe Colombo, Italian, found lying dead by his cousin, Joe Bolari. Police believe Bolari found cousin murdered and brought his body home while drunk.

Cheyenne, Wyo. — Wyoming will enter lists as rival of Nevada in divorce business if bill introduced in lower house is passed.

Champaign, Ill. — 15 students of Univ. of Ill. under discipline for cribbing.

Des Moines, Ia. — Bremner bill authorizing cities of over 20,000 population to establish municipal courts.