

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Burglars entered store of Izadore Grodzin, 2116 Wabash av. Smashed safe with sledge hammers. Took $1,000 in jewelry.

Harry Parker, 1038 W. Van Buren, cook, dropped dead in kitchen of Plymouth hotel, 743 Plymouth pl.

Harold Hollacher, 7, 2312 W. 59th, hit by car at 61st and Western av., Monday, dead.

Henry Kempe, 3853 W. Madison, arrested on serious charge by Mary Wacker of Brooklyn, wedded her. Freed.

Federal authorities to attempt arrest of Jack Johnson on conspiracy charge if he lands in Cuba or Mexico.

Pres. Harry P. Judson, "U" of C., and wife guests of honor at annual faculty-student banquet, Hutchinson hall, tonight.

Frank Sheever, 3243 Indiana av., fell into orchestra at dance in Liberty hall, 30th and Union. Broke instruments. Arrested.

"Judge Supple," lumberjack, fought in saloon at 46th and Wentworth av. Bit policeman's finger. $35 and costs.

Steve Pukkonish, 2308 Clybourn av., arrested as counterfeiter. Accused of making lead nickles. Passed on newsboys.

Tuberculosis sanatorium at N. Crawford and Bryn Mawr avs., costing $1,400,000, and accommodating 1,000, to be dedicated today.

Vestibule cafe, 22d and State, closed by order of mayor. License revoked.

Fred Sutka, teamster Wisconsin Lime Co., killed. Blue Island av. car hit wagon. Threw him under wheels.

Civilian corps of military engineers forming in Western Society of Engineering. To offer services in case of war.

J. Zellermeyer, fish peddler, 1315 Blue Island av., knocked down by beggar. Took $15 worth of fish.

Over 180 tons of silk arrived in San Francisco on way to Chicago.

Coroner Hoffman asked for brain of "defective," Roswell Smith, hanged for murder of Weinstein girl. Refused by mother.

Estate of late Judge Oliver Horner, $8,000, filed for probaton. Goes to widow.

Franklin Lane, secretary of interior, in city today. On way to Panama-Pacific Expo.

Mary Rapp filed declaration in suit against former Cap't Halpin, Barney Bertsche and Frank Ryan. Claims clairvoyant swindle.

John J. Calvey, ass't mgr. of Auditorium, made manager to succeed Will Shaefer, deceased. Started as bellboy 21 years ago.

John Miller, Miller Watt & Co., on trial in federal court for attempt to conceal assets in bankruptcy case.

Gov. Dunne offered reward of $200 for arrest of Rob't Mason, accused of killing Policeman Sausman, Jan. 5.

Estate of James Clow, about $151,000, filed for probaton. Pearl L. Clow executrix.

Registration blanks for users and vendors of opium and narcotics received by Internal Revenue Collector Smetanka.

George White, negro, 1220 S. Independence blvd., arrested as robber. Confessed when identified. Needed cash.

John Flattery, 10, 4329 W. Madison, knocked down and run over by auto of Fred Barth, 645 N. Laurel av., Austin. Taken home by Barth.

Abraham Jacobson, 1221 S. Sawyer av., caught after alleged attempt to pick pocketbook of Mrs. John Ethelhuber, 3548 N. Natchez av.

Richard Travers, agent Northwestern "L" at Grace st., held up by negro. Yelled for help. Robber fired, missed and fled.

Felix Augustanowicz, 1701 Augusta st., drove wife from house and threatened to kill intruder. Police broke in. Found him asleep with shotgun in hand.