

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Thelma Gerome and Eula Obernyre, Grand Rapids, paroled on charge of shoplifting by Judge Prindiville.

George White, colored, held to grand jury on charge of robbery. Held up 5 with tin pop-gun.

Bertram Winston, auditor for Lincoln Park commissioners, to be recommended to school board as appraiser for downtown school property.

Attorney Harold Ickes filed suit for $35,000 against Ald. Jacob Hey. Charges libel.

$2,400,000 municipal tuberculosis sanitarium opened. Health Commissioner Young received keys from Dr. Sachs, pres. board of directors.

Mrs. G. Pimmiga, 642 S. May, wrapped 5-months' old baby in kerosene pack to cure it of ill. Baby died of burns.

Patrick O'Donnell, attorney, urges students of Kent Law school to enter criminal law field.

Harold Croepfner, 9, 6743 S. Winchester av., rescued brother and sister from burning home.

One-year-old daughter of Royal Bell, Winnetka, dead. Fell with spoon in mouth.

Cap't O'Brien asked to search for parents of Austin McCleary, 4. Boy found on steps of New York church.

Claude Crygowski, 3, 8500 Burley av., burned to death. Matches.

Thousands of postal clerks and assistants start tomorrow at quadrennial task of weighing mail. Figures computed for contract prices paid railroads and steamship lines for transportation.

Jane Peyton Post, actress, had marriage to Guy Bates Post annulled. Said former divorce was not placed on record till 2 months after marriage.

Gustave Svedlund, 12, 5749 Augusta, dead. Fell in front of Rothchild's auto truck. Roller skating. Henry Erna, chauffeur, held for inquest.

Rodney Bryan, 10 S. La Salle, held to grand jury for burglary. Broke into candy shop. Said he did it for revenge.

Will disposing of $3,500,000 estate of A. A. Sprague admitted to probate. $105,000 to charity. Rest relatives.

Ferdinand Jelke filed petition asking that wife be cited for contempt. Says she doesn't obey judge's order to let him have son for month.

John Delisle, 1522 Norwood, held for forgery. T. L. Osburn, treas. Federal Insurance Co., 175 W. Jackson, for whom Delisle was clerk, made charge.

Die for making Carter Harrison hero medals broken. Used 30 years. New one ordered.

Still trying to impanel jury in trial of millionaire fire insurance adjuster, Joseph Fish, charged with arson.

Charles Blum arrested, charged with stealing 3 pennies from newsstand at Randolph and 5th av.

Gustave Schmidt sentenced to county jail till Monday, when he will be deported. Violated Mann act.

Lester Payne released under bond. Charged with impersonating government officer and obtaining go-cart by fraud.

Frances Kaminski, 18, sent to the House of Good Shepherd. Had been sleeping in barns. Dr. Seippel said girl was 8 years old mentally.

Harold Hollacher, 7, 2312 W. 59th, struck by street car on way to school. Dead.

Mrs. Mary Lyons dropped dead in home, 5748 Princeton av. Heart disease.

Fred Ludka, teamster, 1252 W. 31st, killed when team became frightened and threw him from seat.

Albert Kettering, druggist, Harper av. and 53d, robbed of $600 worth of cigars. Offers $50 reward for recovery of merchandise.

Mayor Harrison took responsibility for wholesale changes at S. Clark st. station. No reflection on Capt. P. D.