

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mrs. Frances Kane filed suit for $50,000 against Blanche Carroll for alienation of her husband's affection.

Mrs. Jessie Cummins filed suit for $25,000 against Howard-Beggs. Tired of being plaything, she says.

Mrs. Ezra Cook, widow of Chicago publisher, killed by Northwestern train in Wheaton.

Hoboes rejoice when news came from St. Louis yesterday that James Eads How, millionaire hobo, had accepted fortune of his mother, who died recently.

Joseph DeMarzzo confessed to shooting and killing Pasquale Briscine Thursday in barber's chair. Said Briscine killed his brother.

Mrs. Katie Cichon filed suit against Henry von Heine yesterday in behalf of her daughter, a minor, for $10,000.

John Kill, 24, 510 S. Ashland, fined $200. Gun toting.

J. L. Jacobs, efficiency engineer of civil service com'n., says corporation counsel Beckwith "frowned on" investigation in law dap't.

John Pool and Abe Jackson, arrested for peddling drugs. Turned over to government.

Lieut. Col. Judson, U. S. Engineer in Chicago, told Chicago Ass'n that Chicago will be real seaport when the harbor is improved.

All Boonish, Clearing, revived and told police names of men who stabbed him in box car and got $200. Condition serious.

John Murphy, on trial for murdering Joseph Koch, testified latter was a dangerous character. Killed 2 men in St. Louis.

Pres. Wilson and Dudley Field Malone invited to speak before Irish Fellowship club at St. Patrick's day banquet.

Poolrooms being visited in search for 3 auto purse-snatchers, who robbed eight women Thursday.

Cook County Medical and Surgical society met last night to discuss Harrison drug sale prohibiting law.

Year's report of boy's court, compiled by social dept.; 9,834 cases disposed of.

E. J. Eichenlaub, movie manufacturer, arrested on charge of con game. Alleged to have sold certain rights in Iowa twice.

City comptroller to open bids on $2,250,000 worth of city bonds on March 19. Market nearly normal. Good prices expected.

Overheated stove in flat above barber shop at 6337 Dorchester av., caused fire. Patrons fled. $1,000 damage.

Two negroes robbed Baker Bros., coal dealers, 451 W. 31st, of $150. Escaped.

Geo. Zoller, barber, 5657 S. Halsted, arrested in Empress theater for annoying Mrs. J. J. Voss, 6840 Prairie av.

Richard Stevens, 11 months, 221 W. 22d pl., died of burns. Teakettle fell from stove.

Bed of shamrocks to be used St. Patrick's day being nursed by Head Florist James O'Carroll, U. of C. botanical gardens.

Glenn O'Rourke told Judge Trude he committed robbery to join his sick wife in Texas. Held to grand jury.

Four Chicago boys who ran away from home after reading pamphlet describing Panama expo., arrested in Columbus Junction, Ia.

Leo Horwitz, salesman, 1130 S. Halsted, arrested. Josephine Nicastro, 917 S. Racine av., says he tried to hug her. Fined $15.

Joseph Walpert killed self with gas at 12 W. Van Buren. Said family was to blame. Police probing.

Eveline Fischer and Ivan Lindgren married by Judge Petit yesterday. Thought marriage license was sufficient. Did not wed.

Roy Hanley, clerk in main post-office, sentenced to 3 months in jail for stealing letter.

John Dornfeld filed petition for injunction against Cook County Kin-