MRS. YOUNG AND SONSTEBY IN SCHOOL BOARD CLASH

The threatened budget storm which has been hovering over the board of education for weeks broke yesterday when Mrs. Young, sup't of schools, and Trustee John Sonstebly clashed over her estimates for this year. The board faces a $1,273,000 deficit.

Trouble started when Sonstebly complained that Mrs. Young's estimate was not fully itemized and that her reports should show just for what each departmental appropriation was to be used. Mrs. Young became angered and asked him if he was attacking her honesty. He then replied with charges of "playing to the gallery."

The problem of the missing $1,273,000 is still intact. A 10 per cent reduction of salaries and shortening the school year by four weeks were suggested, but neither motion was seconded.

COUNTY TO AID DOPE FIENDS

Chicago and Cook county are reaching ready hands to aid its people who are in the clutch of the morphine or cocaine habit. It is likely at first to be a fight of wrecked bodies and minds in which the ministering institutions will play a losing hand, for it has long been a maxim among medical men that effectual curing of a "dope fiend" was unusual. The drug victims, however, will find help not only in the asylums and the Bridewell, but in the County hospital.

The first attempt at suicide in Chicago because of inability to get morphine was made last night by Chas. Parsells, 56, who was found nearly dead from gas in a room of the Garden City hotel, 416 Sherman.
