

OLD SCHOOL TO BE USED AS DOPE HOSPITAL

The old Oliver Goldsmith school building as Maxwell and Desplaines st. has been offered by the school board to the city to be used as a temporary hospital for drug victims. Yesterday a committee composed of superintendents of the city's largest hospitals was appointed to equip and organize this emergency hospital.

A few days ago when heads of hospitals were asked if they would take "drug fiends" for patients many of them refused. They said it would be impossible to give the treatment necessary for their recovery in an institution crowded with other patients.

THAW JURY IS HOPELESSLY DEADLOCKED, IS REPORT

New York, March 13.—A "hung" jury, a mistrial, postponement of his possible return to Mattewan and another trial on the charge of conspiring to escape faced Harry K. Thaw today. The jury, reported to be almost hopelessly deadlocked, was locked up shortly before midnight. The foreman declared there was but slight prospect of agreement.

Trial Justice Page ordered the jury to report again at 10 o'clock today.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST TENNESSEE PRISON

Nashville, Tenn., March 13.—Declaring the state of Tennessee has been guilty of "murdering those whom society has imprisoned for its protection," the legislative committee investigating the state prison hospital reported that 10,362 lashes had been administered to prisoners during two years covered by the investigation. Women, cripples and tubercular prisoners have been whipped, says the report.

WHITE DEATH STILL MYSTERY

The cause of the death of F. C. White, who fell or was hurled from the 16th story of the Railway Exchange bldg., is still a mystery. The inquest was continued.

"Newt Friedmush's wife nearly starves herself ter feed her husband nourishin' food, on th' theory that th' man needs it. Then he rides down town to work in a bank and she does th' family wash."

MENDING HIS WAYS.

Tourist—As I live, it's a pirate ship!
Boatman—Yes, and it's an interesting story. I know the captain—he's a taxi driver who's turned to it to make an honest living.
