

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

CHICAGO BRIEFS

Anton Stapler, insurance agent, arrested by special agent from New York. Wanted for manslaughter.

Police of Englewood searched cars to find dog "Busy," stolen from A. L. Johnson, 330 W. 60th pl.

Philip Manno, whose private bank at 515 W. Oak st. was closed after partner suicided, arrested for embezzlement.

Mrs. Brent Vaughn, wife of official of Bryant & Stratton business college, got divorce. Another woman.

Wife of Dr. Ingraham Locke granted divorce. Husband, dentist, failed because of dope, claim.

Charles Burns told Judge Prindiville he was paid $190 to assault Wm. Alston, 559 Meirose st., by Edward Redpath, saloonkeeper.

Bear and milk have nearly equal nutritive value declared Edward Gudeman before American Society of Chemists.

Committee of county board members to visit jail today. Planning better building.

Lillian Kliza killed by auto of Alfred Newcomb, 7050 N. Clark st., at 5th av. and Lake st. Newcomb held.

Mary Vandervort, 18, Evanston High School girl, missing from home at 1452 N. Fargo av., Rogers Park.

Chief Justice Olson and Chief of Police Gleason may agree to allow harmless "souses" their freedom without appearing in court.

Warren Crowell, 214 W. Monroe and S. D. Fletcher, 71, 6928 Glenwood av., hit by auto of George Foell, 7816 Aberdeen. Crowell dead; Fletcher dying; Foell held.

Karl Muller, 2029 Sheffield av., had skull fractured when motorcycle hit auto at Fullerton and Southport avs.

Mrs. Emma Langer, saloonkeeper, 531 W. Jackson blvd., bankrupt. War, suffrage and prohibition causes.

August Jost fined $10 for using illegal nets in north shore fishing. Six others arrested.

Sunrise, 6:05; sunset, 5:54.

John Celak, 1131 S. Jefferson, shot by Albert Smith, 3242 S. Hoyne av., watchman, in alleged attempt to enter 12th St. Dep't Store, dead.

Will of George Vial, late sec'y Chicago White Lead & Oil Co., filed for probate. Estate of $320,000 goes to family.

Home of Dr. Sarah Brayton, 1637 Chicago av., Evanston, robbed. About $300 in jewelry gone.

James McPartland, 2007 Washburne av., arrested for non-support of wife and children, says she made him sew own buttons on.

A. B. Case, ticket agent Drexel station, Kenwood "L," shut off lights when held up by negro. Robber fled.

Alex Sandusky, 1628 W. Superior, shot slightly by Frank Simpson in Manhattan saloon, 803 S. State. Captured.

Mrs. Alice Seed, 2857 Archer av., held to grand jury for fraud. Took jewelry from Mrs. Ottlilge Hadel, 4921 Forrestville av., promising to get husband.

T. L. Smith, 4350 Drexel blvd., took poison. May live.

John Fralipyak, 4648 Bishop st., arrested as man who took purse of Rose Robek and tried to drag her into alley.

Mrs. Bessie Hill, 10 E. Ontario st., found unconscious in rear of 502 S. Wabash av., dead. Believed to have taken poison.

John Fiene, former of Beecher, Ill., gored by mad bull. Five ribs broken, internally injured. May die.

James Michelson, 3835 Wallace, arrested on robbery charge of C. C. Gallon, who lost $137.

Delbert Dunlop, 215 S. Kildare av., robbed of $12 by three armed men at Karlov and Monroe.

Dr. Walter Dodd, "U" of Illinois, appointed associate professor of political science at "U" of C.

Federal courts of Chicago and Milwaukee closed today for burial of