

Good billiards marked yesterday's contests in the international three-cushion tourney. Scores: Kleckhefer 50, Eames 45; Morin 50, Ellis 43; Jevne 50, Lean 39; Daly 50, Capron 37. Today's matches: Moore and Hahman, Daly and Ellis, Huey and Jevne, De Oro and Kleckhefer.

Kid Williams made a game effort against Johnny Kilbane through six rounds at Philadelphia, but the bantamweight king did not match up with the boss of the feathers. Kilbane had an advantage in weight, height and reach, and the triple handicap worked for him. Williams tore into his larger opponent, but Kilbane met each rush and the milling was furious. The last round was a whirlwind affair and a knockout for either man was a possibility, as all science was forgotten. Kilbane landed one hard right on Williams' face, the best blow of the battle. Williams received the greater punishment, but was not in distress. He is not ready to desert the bantam ranks.

Plummers of St. Louis rolled into first place among the five-man teams in the A. B. C. bowling tournament at Peoria, knocking 2,833 pins. There were no other changes in the leaders.

Eddie McGoorty won a slow six-round fight from Buck Crouse in Pittsburgh. Crouse declined to stand up and make it a contest, McGoorty chasing him all over the ring and landing at will. But he used only light blows. The battlers were hissed.

Gus Christie got a decision over Eddie Nearing in six rounds at Du-buque, Ia.

Freddie Welsh outpointed Hal Stewart in ten rounds at Fort Wayne, Ind.

Barney Oldfield, driving a Maxwell, won the 300-mile road race at Venice, Cal., in 4:29:04.4. Carlson in a Maxwell was second, 34 seconds behind Oldfield.

WILL HE COME BACK?

Louis
Chevrolet

There will be a come-back in the person of Louis Chevrolet in the 500-mile auto race at Indianapolis, Memorial day. Chevrolet is one of the most sensational drivers in the game, but has not competed since the 1910 Vanderbilt, in which he capsized and was thrown about 80 feet, but escaped without serious injury.

LIBERTY BELL TOO ILL TO GO TO EXPOSITION

Philadelphia, March 18.—"The Liberty Bell is suffering from an incurable organic disease. The crack originally confined to its side has run along its shoulder; half the bell hangs by a slim support and the crack has grown an inch and a quarter in eight years." This assertion was made today by Wilfred Jordan, curator of Independence Hall. "The bell's physical disability should prevent our sending it to the San Francisco fair."

WAITING.

The cars are getting cheaper now; they tell me,

But I shall never purchase one, I fear,
Until an agent volunteers to sell me
"A dollar down and 50 cents a year."
