

CHICAGOGRAMS

—It won't be so very long before the hay rack party will take the place of the sleighride.

—The Auditorium hotel was twenty-five years old Wednesday.

—Ballplayers are going to have a hard time getting "dope" to use on their curves this season.

—'Tis the claim that street sprinklers settle the winter season. They also settle the dust. Let 'em come.

—Landwer brothers and sisters, two of each, are going to warble before the South Side Sunday Evening club, South Park Av. Methodist Episcopal church. Some good looking family is this quartet.

—Bob Fitzsimmons has entered the ring again. To wed a fourth wife Saturday.

—Some of the things politicians get away with nowadays should be pigeonholed. They're "out of order."

—Watch for the first straw hat. Who's game?

—Off come the heavy ones, on come the light; then a change of weather, isn't it a fright?

—Thank Pete we don't have to move this year!

GREAT COLOR SCHEME!

Union, N. J.—Blue snow, pink frogs and metamorphosis of white ducks into green, caused by acids from a chemical factory draining into a stream on his place are complaints in a farmer's injunction suit.

MADE SOME HAUL

Indianapolis.—After a thief forced entrance to the Murray Coal Co.'s office he robbed the cash drawer of its entire contents—two cents.

REGULAR DEVILS!

New York—Standard Oil clerks and officers are to have a $100,000 private roof garden restaurant at 26 Broadway.

OUR GARDEN

By Jim Manes.

We plant and we plant,

And we rake and we hoe,

We're tired and we threaten

"The garden shall go."

But, gosh, we are patient,

We stick and still know,

That it is too early

And nothing will grow.

P. S.—Anyway, we can raise the chickens!

CAFE DANCING UPHELD

Loop cafe owners won their fight for public dancing in the restaurants when Judge Courtney declared parts of the "cabaret" ordinance invalid.

Courtney held that cafe dancing was a nuisance only when conducted in a manner which affected public morals for the worse.

Until the city obtains a reversal of the ruling or passes another ordinance against cafe dancing the patrons of the downtown restaurants are free to do their tripping at meal time.

'T WASN'T A "BEAR" DANCE

Boston. — Mayor Curley forced young society women in a classic Greek dance at a woman suffrage benefit to wear stockings. He said bare feet and legs were "shocking to public morals."

CHICAGO GRAIN. — Wheat, corn, oats and provisions up. May wheat closed at $1.56%.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Market dull, except for irregular trading in Reading.

WEATHER FORECAST

Unsettled weather tonight and Friday, with probable showers or snow flurries; colder Friday; lowest temperature tonight near the freezing point; winds shifting to northerly by Friday morning and becoming fresh.
