

GUESS IF THEY ARE MARRIED

WANT NOV. 4 FOR SEAMEN'S LAW

Washington, March 24.—Representatives of all important lake steamship lines with headquarters in Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo and elsewhere were before Ass't Sec'y Sweet of the commerce dept yesterday to argue that seamen's law should become effective Nov. 4 instead of July 4. Declared impossible to equip craft as law required by July 4.

INDICTED ON GIRLS' CHARGES

Lyall Thompson, a money lender, 9206 Commercial av., was this morning indicted by the Stark county, Ind., grand jury on a charge of rape. According to the stories of his two nieces, Elizabeth Anderson, 7942 Manistee, and Esther Lundquist, 8023 Manistee, each 9 years old, he attacked them both while on a vacation trip to Indiana last year.
