

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

John M. Hartnett, 1222 Pratt Blvd., appointed receiver for North Shore News by Judge Sullivan.

Philip Barnett of Barnett Bros., 104 W. Jackson Blvd., freed on charge of taking $1,500 in jewelry. Suing Fred Abels for false arrest.

Roger Sherman, 126 E. Grand av., arrested for stealing auto of J. A. Schroeder, 3535 Ellis av.

Mrs. Mary Haverlik, 1632 W. 14th, found dead by husband. May have tried suicide with match heads. Police say.

Schools of Gary, Ind., to close early this year. Board unable to raise money.

Home of David Dangler, 61 E. Oak, broken into by burglar. About $1,200 in loot taken.

George Washington, negro, failed to support children, arrested. Told judge he was truthful and denied charge. Paroled.

John Kosakavage and Mrs. John Kileen, who eloped from Luzerne, Pa., arrested when they called at express office to claim suitcase.

Judge Jarecki warned motorists he will fine chauffeurs who do not have new 1915 license.

Mrs. William Carey inherited $200,000 estate of husband.

Property owners near W. 63d ct. and Halsted ask injunction against Chicago Railways Co. to stop storing and unloading cars there.

J. S. Hotten nominated for president of River Forest by postal card balloting.

Peter Mayer, 6142 Ellis, clothier, suicide. Poison. Financial troubles.

Suit of Mrs. Stacia Broux, 1142 E. 55th, started against Chas. A. Standish, former landlord. Says she was evicted.

John B. Watson, real estate dealer, 6310 Kenwood av., arrested for forfeiting bond on embezzlement charge in December.

Charles Johnston, 1224 Burling st., suicide. Gas. Reason unknown.

Six Chinese arrested by police for smoking opium, turned over to federal authorities.

Stephen Vician, 912 Hermitage av., suicide. Gun. Quarreled with wife.

Charles Felston, 1236 Oakdale av., suicide. Gas. Out of work.

Dr. R. T. Vaughn, ass't warden County hospital, opposing use of John Worthy school for dope fiend cure. Needed for boys.

Mrs. Blanche Schneider, 6101 Stewart, found unconscious with gas tube near mouth. Revived. Reason unknown.

Mrs. Robert Willis, 2036 Wabash av., dead from gas taken Tuesday. Reason unknown.

Names of 15 successful lieutenants seeking captains' jobs posted by civil service commission.

Illinois State Bank of Chicago to pass out of control of Lorimer and aids.

Ernest Eichenlaub, 406 Schiller bldg., freed of fraud charge of Jas. Haley, 5209 W. Lake. Suing Haley. John Gionovico, 1643 N. Oakley av., out throat. Out of work.

Christie Sweetman escaped from Desplaines st. police station.

Frank Smith, 2059 W. Lake, found unconscious from poison. Has made former attempts.

Police fear disappearance of J. B. Roberts is work of same gang holding Albert Vasey.

BLDG. COMMITTEE TO PROBE LUMBER INTERESTS' CHARGE

The council committee on buildings will meet today to begin an inquiry into the truth of an affidavit made by R. H. Pratt, who says that the lumber interests discussed the raising of a $1,000,000 fund to defeat the ordinance.

The open lobbying in the city hall by both the brick and lumber interests will be looked into thoroughly by the investigating committee which will be appointed.