

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:36; sunset, 6:13.

Adam Mueller arrested for running away from home with money. Friend visited him. Arrested as companion. To be brought back to Cincinnati.

Man told Judge Gemmill he lived in Cottage Grove av. police station. Police deny charge.

Crane "rough necks" will not be disciplined by Sup't Ella Flagg Young. "Boys will be boys," she said.

John Georgackis, restaurant keeper, 105 N. Oak Park av., arrested for violating women's ten-hour work day law. Girls worked 12 hours.

E. L. Detmar, 422 Rush st., died on street of heart disease. Attacked on car.

Joseph Spinner, 52, 2820 Arlington, teamster, dead. Thrown from wagon.

Case of Dr. Louis Wineburg, on trial for violation of Mann act, to go to jury today.

Gigantic railroad yards to be built near Gary by N. Y. Central. Work to start this summer. Road to build $100,000 boulevard as recompense to city.

Chief of Police Gleason to go back to rank of Captain on day before election. Salary reduced from $8,000 to $3,000 a year.

Carl Dresser, billiard room attendant for C. A. C., suicided. Gas.

Judge Sabath to ask Chief Probation Officer Houston for officer to look for employment for men who come into court. Without jobs.

Three boy auto bandits, oldest 15, robbed William Boucher at Polk and Central Park av. 60 cents.

Serg't Cudmore stopped dance at stag party in Lincoln Turner hall. Woman garbed in veil and flowers.

Thief stole hat of Rev. John Timothy Stone from 4th Presbyterian church.

Marie Jewel, daughter of retired army officer, arrested with man at Wabash av. cabaret. Missing month.

Joseph Zieger wounded in hip. Motorcycle cop shot at speeding auto.

Judge Newcomer in small claims court ruled tailor must pay customer $7. Pants shrunk when pressed.

Bertha Winkel filed suit for $25,000 against Christian Peasch. Breach of promise.

Ill. public utilities com'n to arbitrate on 9-year fight over rates of Lake Forest Water Co. Town claims they are unjust.

Sec'y of Cyrus McCormick denies report he has deserted ranks of Ill. Man. ass'n. Says he isn't going to Springfield to help woman's 8-hour bill.

Att'y representing Public Defenders' ass'n tried first case in boys' court yesterday. Boy discharged. Disorderly complaint.

Robert Koske, 70, 687 Milwaukee av., dead. Gas. "Playmates" found him.

George Setter and wife, divorced recently, to be re-married. He reformed.

Safe in office of General Furniture Co., 11155 Michigan av., blown. $415.

Burleigh Billig, structural ironworker, arrested as suspect in Aurora murder. To be turned over to Aurora police today.

200 Armenians visited Lake Forest in search of jobs. Chased away. Told to come back to work a dozen at a time.

Myrtle Jones, 10, 2163 N. Clark, killed by auto as she stepped from car. Driver not arrested.

May Hayes, 5112 S. May, struck by auto which had collided with wagon. John Nehison, chauffeur, arrested.

Police holding Elmer Hall because he sent Minneapolis woman $9 to come to Chicago.

Judge Gemmill promised to get Sophia Wargin a job. Brought before him for attempting to end life.

Paul Levison sold bottle of flour to Lillian La Vell for $15, saying it was cocaine. Arrested in Wheaton.

Chicago Motor club sponsor for meeting held in New Southern hotel