

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:19; sunset, 6:24.

Wm. C. Waterson sued John R. Thompson Co. for $25,000. Struck by auto last December.

Frank Holstein, implicated in Weil murder confessions of Walter Weed and Wilbur Hard, arrested. Capt. Smith won't say where.

Isadore Wexler brought back from Joliet prison to testify in suit of Diamond Bros., clothiers, against Max and Sarah Goldstein, whom they charged with converting stolen property to their own use.

Ald. Harry Littler, 28th ward, suing John Reitz, 2088 Milwaukee av., for $15,000 damages. Reitz hung objectionable sign in window.

Two men in auto threw "stink bombs" into offices of Gordon Dye House, 1448 W. 21st. Rivals blamed.

John Klops, 1901 Polk, tried suicide in W. 13th st. police station. Rope. Revived.

Mrs. Thomas O'Gara, 1543 Dearborn pkwy., hurt when thrown from horse on Lake Shore drive.

Sam Mendelsohn, 1216 S. Racine av., caused arrest of daughter and new husband. Says they took trunk from house.

Mrs. Evelyn Fink, 4252 Indiana av., lost $1,200 rings from bag on stocking. Reward of $100.

County charity agents asking cash for aid to poor. Hard winter cost $270,000.

Gladys Crispig, 18, who ran away from home in Edison, O., and later notified folks, returned yesterday.

Frank Charvat, 150 N. Leamington av., postal clerk, arrested on charge of rifling mails. Confessed.

Mrs. Bertha Jervis, 521 Hinman st., Evanston, arrested for taking 13-year-old Mabel Watson into saloons.

Youths petition Pres. Markham of I. C. R. R. Signboard on property at 40th and Lake spoils baseball field.

United Societies organized by wards at Bismark hotel last night, for anti-dry campaign in 1916.

Chas. Heide, 3312 Osgood, arrested. Charged with beating 79-year-old mother.

Harold Hamilton, Mount Vernon, Ill., held to grand jury for alleged $1,500 theft of jewelry from home of Mrs. Etta McConnell, 4406 Sheridan road.

Paul Neumann, Addison and Marshfield, av., held up by two armed bandits. Fired at when he resisted. Assaultants escaped.

H. H. Fravin lost bankroll saved four years in navy to short-change "con" man.

Elmer Dahms, 321 E. 44th, and John McDonald, 4353 Calumet, held up at 39th and Rhodes av. by three men. Lost $3.

Marvin Olson, 5921 S. Sangamon and Raymond Lattimore, 5902 S. Halsted, arrested in La Salle st. station. Ran away from home.

Unidentified man, 45 years old, killed by Illinois Central train at 47th st.

Two sergeants, four detective sergeants and 31 patrolmen transferred by Chief Gleason.

Wm. F. McCombs, New York, chairman of National Democratic committee, in city. Mission unknown.

Jos. Zellas, 3038 W. 38th pl., hit by auto at 5th and Taylor. Will recover.

Estate of Mrs. Adeline Sharpe, Oak Park, filed for probatation. Totals $2,000,000.

John Egar, 6302 Waveland av., arrested for disorderly conduct. Wife says he sold family cow to get money.

Anna Zippman McDermott, who shot Ald. McDermott in city hall months ago, held to grand jury.

John Jedec, 2210 S. Oakley av., fined $25 for speeding. Caught after being shot at.

Mayoralty campaign cost city and principals $1,372,000, according to politicians. Sweitzer spent half million, says his report.

Charles M. Hayes, pres. public safety commission, issued warning