

ANSWERED

Son—I say, pa!
 Father—Well?
 Son—Is a vessel a boat?
 Father—Yes.
 Son (after some thought)—I say, pa!
 Father (impatiently)—What is it?
 Son—What kind of a boat is a blood-vessel?
 Father (absently)—It's a lifeboat. Now run away to bed.

ECONOMY

She—But if I can't live on my income and you can't live on yours, where would be the advantage of our marrying?
 He (thoughtfully)—Well, by putting our incomes together, one of us would be able to live, at any rate.—Boston Transcript.

SHE KNEW

"I am collecting for the suffering poor."
 "But are you sure they really suffer?"
 "Oh, yes, indeed. I go to their houses and talk to them for hours at a time."

NOAH'S HIDING

"Who was Mr. Noah Webster, muvver," queried the tot?
 "Why, Mr. Webster was a great man, Bobbie, who wrote the dictionary."
 "Why did he have to hide, muvver?"
 "He didn't hide, Bobbie; what do you mean?"
 "Case teacher, she said he wrote his dickshernary under a bridge."

CAUSE AND EFFECT

"Miss Dawker," said Professor Jobling, with a hesitant manner, "a psychic impulse prompts me to ask you if you will be my wife."
 "Something of the same sort struck Mr. Bilkins last night, professor, and the recoil prompted me to say 'Yes.'"—Baltimore Sun.

HER PERVERSITY

Knicker—Does your wife laugh at the wrong place in the story?
 Bocker—Yes, and she cheers at the wrong place in a ball game.—New York Sun.
