

MILLIONAIRE IS HEAD OF "QUACKS"

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 4, NO. 176

Chicago, Friday, April 23, 1915

396 STATE'S ATT'Y CHARGES
PLOT AGAINST GIRL

Grand Jury Probe Into Case of Frances Vanderheyden, Attacked in Massage Parlor, Is Near—Former
Ass't State's Att'y Dragged Into Case—
Probe Doc Hickson's Story.

A grand jury investigation of the entire case of Frances Vanderheyden, the 17-year-old girl who charges she was beaten and attacked by two men in "Mother" Caird's massage parlor at 421 S. Wabash av., is contemplated by State's Att'y Hoyne's office.

Ass't State's Att'y John Herren, who yesterday tore the mask from Dr. Wm. Hickson, the $5,000-a-year head of the city psychopathic laboratory declared today that there was powerful but shady influence at work to discredit the girl's testimony. Dr. Hickson yesterday went on the stand and said the girl was "mentally deficient," but when grilled on the mental test by which he claims to have determined her status he made a pitiful exhibition of himself.

Today's sensation lay in the announcement that Former State's Att'y Herbert Lust, who disappeared from Hoyne's service after he had tried to throw out the case against Frederick Bromo, the man whom the girl says lured her to "Mother" Caird's, was going to testify in behalf of the massage parlor outfit.

Herren immediately got busy and made an examination of the case. This is what he found:

When Elizabeth ("Mother") Caird,