

"Have to tell whom and what?" asked Walter.

"Miss Thorpe our secret," explained Norah, and she blurted out the story of the discovery of the young lady in question.

It came about that the landlady invited them both to supper the next evening—Norah's crafty work! And deft, friendly Norah, by a careless remark, opened up the theme that was uppermost in the minds of both. There was a frank confession.

"I can never thank you," said Verda. "I really believe that through my being at the home of my friend's mother that evening her life was spared."

And later came the full reward of love and patience to Walter Bliss and two earnest spirits were made happy.

FILTH MEANS FLIES AND DEATH!

Flies love to feast on filth, and then get into the house and wipe their feet on your cake or on baby's bottle. SCREEN THE HOUSE!

It is true they are nature's scavengers, but they spread filth and disease in doing their work. And besides it is better to do your own scavenging by keeping clean than to have the fly do it for you; for not only is a fly a dangerous companion, but clean people are beginning to suspect that those who have flies about them are dirty housekeepers.

If, therefore, you wish to bear a reputation for cleanliness in your neighborhood, be sure that your trash and manure heaps are frequently removed and that your house is properly screened!

WHAT'S THE USE?

"Are you putting away something for a rainy day, Tommy?" asked the little boy's aunt as she saw him at his little savings bank.

"No, ma'am," was Tommy's reply, "there ain't no ball games on rainy days."—Yonkers Statesman.

BETTY BROWN FINDS FASHION HAS SENSIBLE MOODS

Dame Fashion has her sensible moods as well as her flights of frivolity—here's the coat suit to prove it.

Mme. Alla Ripley, president of the Fashion Art League of America, who devised this sensible little gown, showed me a charming model in olive green serge with blouse of sand-colored chiffon cloth.

The skirt is box-pleated with narrow straps set horizontally around the hips and there's a girdle and collar of black satin and an ornamental pocket of the serge.

As a three-piece suit it is just the thing for shopping or general utility—take off the coat and you have a charming little frock, pretty enough for a tea or a matinee and cool enough for the warmest summer day.
