

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:41; sunset, 6:44.

Sophia Yanich, scrub woman, Blackstone hotel, died taking cold plunge after bath in servants' quarters. Heart disease blamed.

W. Mulvihill, att'y Chicago Law and Order league, outlined election law reform to prevent frauds before Chicago session of legislature committee on elections.

Mrs. Margaret Murphy, 122 N. Kilbourn av., had John Sajonok, 44 W. Lake st., arrested because he failed to return $20 bill left in shoe. Sajonok discharged.

Alice Heenan suing Max Guggenheim for $25,000. Says she was hurt by his auto.

Committee representing public library board to appear before legislative committee on park consolidation to defend branch library idea in small parks.

F. E. Suegner, 14 W. Austin av., driver of auto truck which ran away in loop, badly bruised when truck hit car. Police stopped it.

Henry Krug suing Wm. Gabriel for $25,000. Autos of both collided Saturday night. Both blame the other.

Yearly report of State's Att'y Hoyne's office shows 763 convictions in felonies and 1,081 for misdemeanors. $67,000 funds collected turned over to Judge Scully.

Fire truck removed body of Stephen Dobrosky, 6001 Wabash av., from pole he climbed to fix arc light. Electrocutted.

Geo. Osborne, Denver, representative of Farson, Son & Co., pleaded not guilty to using mails to defraud. Out on $5,000 bonds.

Joseph Oczko, 8, 2418 W. 24th pl., throwing coal from Penn. freight train, fell under cars. Right leg crushed. May live.

190 of 200 "bums" arrested by Desplaines-st. police fined $5 and sent to Bridewell for spring bath. 10 discharged when they showed means of substance.

Four alleged pickpockets, held at 50th st. police station, booked when att'y threatened to get habeas corpus writ.

Eight retiring council members of Lake Forest stayed away from inauguration of new mayor. Places have been taken by 4 commissioners.

Wife and 5 children of Fred Nelson pleaded for him in speeders' court. He was discharged.

Margaret Hartnett, 2119 Calumet av., choked by robber, who escaped with purse containing $55.

Helmer Fandell, 19, 5326 N. Ashland av., badly burned when gasoline he was pouring in motorcycle tank became ignited.

Stephan Yoman, 113 E. Illinois, accidentally shot self in left hand. Examining revolver of friend.

Man who gave name of Dr. Fred Bisdom, 66, 559 Fullerton pkwy., fined $100 by judge on disorderly charge.

Police probing fire which destroyed barn at 1141 W. 14th pl. House of John Greenberg, next door, robbed of $85 when family was chased to the street by smoke.

Mrs. Florence Grim, 65, 105 S. California av., killed herself because "friend" to whom she loaned $100 had left city. Saved money for burial.

Coroner's jury found that Mrs. Annie Jelusalinski, 3515 Forrestville, took poison on grave of husband while temporarily insane.

Supt of Dunning asylum investigating how Louis Jensen, a patient, obtained razor with which he killed himself.

West Hammond police hunting for man who shot and killed two farmers Sunday.

Police say Burt Aikman, delicatessen owner found dead in store at 3659 Indiana av., Sunday, took poison to escape blackmailers.

Body taken from lake at 9th st. Supposed to be that of John Lapinski.