

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:50. Sunset, 6:45.

Edward Bacon, grain dealer, suing for property of Otto Reichelt, who was sentenced to prison for taking $24,329 from Bacon.

Love letters signed "Morrie" playing part in divorce suit against Herman Bockfinger, president Universal Sales Co., Karpen bldg.

Evan Edward fined $100 for alleged annoyance to Alice Smith, 2419 N. Tolman av., and Lillian Singer, 4312 S. Honore.

Edward Broukal, 3, Blue Island, missing. Toy wagon found on canal bank.

Bullet said to have been fired from auto crashed through window of public library narrowly missing several.

Police ordered to enforce "drinking water at every dance hall" law. Penalty $200.

Two arrested for fatal stabbing of Joseph Francisco, butcher, 712 W. Taylor-st.

John Mondellio, 1156 Larabee st., killed by fall while cleaning fourth-story window.

Charles Miannau, 37 N. Halsted st., suicide. Lost job.

On pretense of getting a room, Joseph Ripka told Abe Zalla, 102 S. Hermitage av., he would try a meal. Never returned. Fined $30.

Wm. Howerton, negro, found guilty in federal court of violating Mann act in transporting Sabina Cochran to Omaha.

Actors and actresses at Germania theater refused to give performance last night after crowd appeared. Not paid, claim.

Former Chief of Police Gleason returned to Lake st. police station as captain.

John C. Wood, president of village board of Hinsdale, to retire after six years of service.

Wm. Meinhart, 1914 Indiana av., had skull fractured when thrown from wagon at Lake and Canal. Vehicle swerved in car track.

Jewelry worth $1,000 taken by burglars in entering home of Helman Jacobson, 1618 W. 12th. Second time.

Three youths fished Adolph Sidenburg's pants out of bedroom window at 1054 W. 13th. Took $5.15 and returned trousers.

City Engineer Ericsson issued an order against dumping of rock from Wilson av. tunnel into lake. Spoiled bathing beaches.

Julius Strube, arrested on complaint of Mrs. Hannah Fisher, 806 N. Dearborn st. Says he got money on marriage promise.

George Edwards, 2020 Indiana av., and Louis Stein, 15 Bishop ct., held to grand jury on charge of 20 burglaries in Wilson av. district.

Estate of James Culbertson, Kenilworth, goes to widow, Mrs. Nora Culbertson, by order of Judge Honore. Worth $740,000.

Seven homes burned in widely distributed fires over city yesterday. Loss about $100,000.

Mrs. Mary Saussier, 75, 4853 Langley av., killed by Cottage Grove av. car at 49th st.

Coroner's jury over body of Hiram Jenkins, watchman found dead from bullet wound, unable to say who fired shot.

Ulrick S. Voelcker, 1228 Sedgwick st., tried suicide. Gas. Will live.

Divorced parents of Ferdinand Jelke, whose father is millionaire butterine maker, fighting for custody of child.

John Kolb, 5116 Laflin st., suicide. Gun. Left wife and three children.

Charles F. Grant, 35, cashier Highland Park bank, nearly dead from the loss of blood. Had 12 teeth extracted.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, 1422 E. Marquette road, rescued from lake by life guards who said she jumped in.

Tax deed law declared void by the supreme court of Illinois.

Coroner's jury over Louis Jensen, patient at Dunning who cut throat,