

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:35; sunset, 6:58.

C. O. Sanberg, 3239 Osgood st., rescued from lake by life-savers. Fell off pier in dark.

"First aid" equipment furnished Canal st. station of postoffice to guard against blood poison from minor cuts in handling mail.

Arthur Schroeder, 17, 2453 Lincoln av., died of fall from ladder at Atlas Linen Supply Co., 1032 Wrightwood.

Wm. Heffernon, 1456 Fletcher, and 5 companions arrested. Police charge stealing of horse, wagon and load of hay.

John O'Brien and John String arrested for robbery of Sam Nieman, 3512 W. 12th st. Nieman lost $80.

Eight men charged with gambling after raid at 4300 Emerald av.

Body of Chas. Balak, 8815 Exchange av., missing since May 3, found in Calumet river. Fell from boat.

Anton Zelinski, 2300 W. 47th st., had arm broken when hit by 47th st. car near home.

Loaf of bread thrown in fight hit policeman passing house. John Muskitus and brother, 1453 S. Halsted, arrested.

F. W. Schwinn, 2128 Humboldt Blvd., and Arthur Wallin, 734 E. 70th pl., fined $5 for speeding in Evanston.

Wm. Schofield, florist, hurt when he drove delivery wagon into auto rather than hit pedestrians at Chicago av. and Clark st.

Albert Huth, 2240 Lincoln av., out of work. Took gas. Revived.

Jos. Huntley, 19 Sheldon st., arrested after fight when found in home of Geo. Fuchs, 435 W. North av.

M. J. Brock, Stratford hotel, arrested by federal sleuth after four-year chase. Misuse of mails charged.

Bessie Meyers, 6, 3117 N. Paulina st., badly bruised by motorcyclist who sped away.

Bubbly Creek, open sewer on the Southwest Side, must go, residents of district say. Disease breeder.

Unidentified man dying in Washington Park hospital after auto hit car at 59th and Cottage Grove av.

Michael Prescehek and Thos. Crimaschek, 306 S. Halsted st., overcome by gas. Revived.

Cabaret of Edward Masterson, Eugenie st. and Park av., raided as dive. Eighteen arrested.

Anthony E. Nelson, 83, Gross Point, near dead when found in woods by rescue party. Clothes had caught on wire fence.

Wm. Casey, 6625 Evans av., stabbed in fight at home of Charles Murphy, 7219 S. Marshfield av.

John Dorst, 3438 Emerald av., lost $3 to two armed men near home.

Anna Jacobs, 62, in County hospital with rare form of leprosy. May be deported.

Jos. Streicker, newsboy, stabbed in side in fight with Michael Morrizzi, 753 DeKoven st., at Madison and 5th.

Auto of Geo. Fenn, 1926 Trumbull av., crashed into house of Harry Roberts, 2039 Jackson Blvd. None hurt.

Martin Bell, 1126 Townsend st., fell out of window while walking in sleep. Almost unhurt.

MASS MEETING TO TAKE UP SCHOOL PROBLEM

School teachers, parents and citizens are urged to be present at a mass meeting to protest against the causes of unrest in the Chicago school system which will be held at the Olympic theater tomorrow at 4:30 p. m. The meeting has been called by a body of teachers who are opposing the proposed salary cut.

SONGS OF A CYNIC

My wife's the most impulsive

Of all her sex and race;

But while she makes her mind up quick

I often wish she were as slick

In making up her face.

—San Francisco Chronicle.