
GARMENT WORKERS MAY WALK OUT

THE DAY BOOK*An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday*

VOL. 4, NO. 194

Chicago, Friday, May 14, 1915

398

NOT MORE BABIES, BUT BETTER CHILDREN

This Is Slogan of Meeting Called Sunday to Discuss Family Limitation—Speakers Will Cry for the Right of Women to Regulate Birth .

A woman will take the platform of the Assembly Hall of the Fine Arts building Sunday night and make a talk never before made to a public audience in Chicago.

She will tell the audience exactly what a first-class doctor tells a millionaire's wife who comes into his office crying: "Doctor, I don't want to have a baby. Help me not to have a baby."

The woman to make this talk is Emma Goldman, anarchist. She stated to a Day Book reporter today that she will tell her audience the last word of modern medical science on birth control. She will describe the physical technique by which it is claimed a woman has power to say for herself just how few or how many babies shall arrive to her.

The federal government is now prosecuting Margaret Sanger, editor of the Woman Rebel, for printing and distributing the same information which Miss Goldman is to give from the platform Sunday night. The action against Mrs. Sanger was started by Anthony Comstock, an old enemy of Miss Goldman.

"I believe every truth that science has discovered should be made known to every woman who wants that truth," said Miss Goldman, sitting in a leather rocker in the Little Review office in the Fine Arts Bldg.

"The rich man's wife has money to go to a physician and pay a fee for learning how to take care of herself. She gets in advance the information that protects her against what she doesn't want to happen.

"But how about the wife of the workingman living in poverty? Or