

SHE'S A "POEM IN MOTION" AND POETRY IS POPULAR AT EXPOSITION

San Diego, Cal.—Miss Margaret Edwards, who has been called a "poem in motion," gave exposition visitors a pleasant surprise the other day when she visited the "show" attired in the costume of her famous role the "Naked Truth." Miss Edwards posed in the sylvan glades of the exposition grounds in several of her classic roles.

—o—o—

A man has asked a divorce on the grounds that during seven years of married life his wife always has called him "Mister." If the majority of us could get our wives to be that polite occasionally we'd celebrate instead of sue.

The supreme court has put a price on pain in damage suits and hereafter when we get hurt we are going to vow we were hit on the shin and the crazy bone.