

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:14; sunset, 7:25.

Man believed to be George K. Tonjas, 113 E. Chicago av., killed by bullet while walking up alley near home. Mistaken for burglar.

Judge Heap in morals court started investigation of case of Bessie Hollings, negro, Birmingham, Ala., who said she was held in barn.

Myoyo Tani, secretary Japanese Christian ass'n, 3850 Lake Park av., suing Jitsuzo Hrada for $10,000. Slander alleged.

Nicholas Nable, 5, set out from Dorcas Home in Evanston to walk home, 9 miles. Taken back.

Henry Ericsson, building comm'r, resigned job and left for California. Mayor Thompson to appoint successor.

Pauline Palmer, artist, broke arm in studio at Lincoln and Seminary avs. Tripped over board.

William Jones, 6205 S. Halsted st., charged as keeper in gambling raid at address. Betting sheets and racing forms taken.

Father of Kazuny Lillikis, 8, 1815 S. Union av., killed by stick thrown from top of building at 18th and Canal, got $6,000 verdict.

Wladislaw Kaminski, 1050 N. Paulina, fined $100 for beating daughter, 8.

Harry O'Neill and two companions, wanted as auto bandits, arrested by Detective Chris Sloier after gun fight.

June 14 set as "Flag day" by proclamation of Mayor Thompson.

Mrs. Elizabeth McGowan, 664 Blackhawk st., charging the parents of husband are holding child until she pays funeral, asked for writ.

Special hearing on ordinance limiting billboards to be given by council building committee Friday.

L. L. Reid, 4159 Draxel av., suing landlord. Interfered with work on flower box being built on porch.

Peter Catalanetto, 320 W. North av., bondsman, killed at Division and Sedgwick st. Black Hand duel.

Wm. A. Taetrow filed suit for annulment of marriage. Says wife left him for another.

Samuel Blodgett, manager freight dep't Hamburg-American line, asked $60 alimony be cut in half.

Mrs. Helen Larson, 1873 Orchard st., got divorce. Says hubby liked only pork chops and dog.

Tillie Grossman and parents freed by Judge Wamsley. Charged by Sam Sklar with conspiracy to defraud.

Mrs. Margaret Waterman, 1920 W. Superior st., missing. Police asked to search.

Paul Sandberg, 5438 N. Ashland av., knocked from motorcycle by fire engine at Sheffield and Addison.

William Heller, 26 S. Aberdeen st., held by police. Stolen property of Fred Belford, 5000 Prairie av., found on person.

Andrew Uhlmann, 5, 3158 S. 5th av., died from phosphorus poisoning, coroner's physician decided.

Olaf Noreen, 517 E. 35th st., suicide. Gun. Despondent.

Edwin Razall, secretary for H. Channon & Co., 150 N. Market st., arrested as forger.

William Miller, 17, who came to Chicago to earn fortune, on way to home at Johnstown, Pa.

George Quentin, 4325 Wilcox av., suicide. Gas. No reason known.

Coal gas from furnace killed Mrs. Emma Oas and daughter, 8 years' old, at 4743 Grace st. Boarder overcome.

Mandarin Inn Co., 414 S. Wabash av., trying to prevent C. F. Foin from disposing of interest in firm. Business not run right is claim.

Mrs. Thomas Bull, 6041 Eberhardt av., suicide. Poison. Temporarily insane, coroner's jury decided.

Jack S. Plant, Houston, Tex., arrested at Great Northern hotel. Charged with embezzling $184 from Loose-Wiles Biscuit Co.

Harris Cohen, jewelry salesman, held in contempt of court and sent to