

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:18; sunset, 7:29.

Last of evidence for defense in U. S. suit to dissolve bill poster trust to be in tomorrow.

Judge Brentano overruled some objections to the condemnation of property in proposed widening of 12th st. To hear more today.

Lillian Krockover, 16, 4323 S. Halsted, screamed and fainted when her brother was sentenced to 3 months in Bridewell for larceny.

Fred Potthast, saloonkeeper, filed injunction asking that wife and others may be restrained from obtaining judgment on property.

W. H. Clare to be sworn in as U. S. appraiser in Chicago.

Alice Farnsworth, actress, won $15 suit in small claims court against Joseph Irving, theater manager. Sued for pay.

Robt. McDonald and John Lain arrested in rooming house at 3318 Indiana av. Wanted in Minneapolis for staging fake horse races.

William Gregori, 2743 Flournoy, appointed ass't sup't of streets. Salary is $3,600.

Jas. Martin, negro, held to grand jury without bail for killing Richard Jackson in poolroom.

Anna Schulman suing Louis Samuels for $10,000. Fell down flight of stairs in bldg. owned by Samuels.

Sybil Amundsen, 19, 905 N. Leamington, granted continuance when brought before court for shoplifting. Stole goods from dep't stores.

Rebecca Dombrowski, 1320 N. Washitaw av., swore out warrant for Aaron Mandel. Promised to marry her today. Disappeared yesterday.

Body of unidentified man found on beach at Wilmette. Wire about neck believed to have been attached to weight.

Daniel Charvat, Hawthorne, wants $23,000 from Burlington road. Injured when someone touched match to movie films in coach on Nov. 29.

Detective Serg't McArdle, Evans-ton, to resign after 22 years of service.

John P. Walton had hearing destroyed year ago. Yesterday struck by Erie train in Hammond and killed.

State's Att'y Hoyne filed bill against election of three trustees in village of Justice. Alleges election fraud.

Judge Cooper recovering from quinsy attack at his home in Antioch.

George Madgich, 8934 Buffalo av., killed in plant of Illinois Steel Co. Boom cables broke and fell on head.

Coroner asked to probe death of Mrs. Anna Brown, 78, 3026 Prairie av. Relatives think that recent injuries in accident caused death.

Coroner's jury unable to determine what cause fatal injuries to Jesse Glaze, found unconscious in front of 3740 S. Racine av. Police say auto struck him.

Englewood police kept busy last night. Disturbances at four weddings.

Judge Wade dismissed charge of assault against Mrs. Bridget Stevens, who attempted to kill son-in-law in court.

Mayor restored license for bathing beach at 76th to Sanitary Bathing Beach Co. Revoked when neighbors complained.

Mrs. Jas. Wilson, 344 W. 61st, for whom police were searching, returned home. Visited son in South Chicago. Forgot to lock house.

Charissa Howsworth, colored, is 104 today. Living with grandson at 2104 Fulton. Has 39 grandchildren and still helps about house.

Collection of wheel tax to begin July 7. Governor signed bill. Now has to be approved by city council.

Cap't Peter Jensen of U. S. coast guard station at Evanston promoted. Now has charge of 25 stations along Lakes Superior and Huron.

Theodore Barnas, 5, 2826 W. 26th, dead. Swallowed kerosene.

Dr. Eva Shaver released on $30,000 bonds. Indicted for murder when An-