

SUBMARINES GET TWO—TURK DELEGATES SEEK PEACE

London.—The Norwegian steamer Nordas submarined off Peterhead. Crew rescued.

London.—Crew of steamer Clio sunk by German submarine, being brought into Liverpool.

Sofia.—Newspaper Mir asserted two Turkish delegates enroute to Switzerland to attempt to reach terms for peace with allies.

Paris. — "Labyrinth" southeast of Neuville again scene of desperate fighting. Germans last night launched determined attempt to recapture intricate system of tunnels and cellars from which they once dominated roads leading north from Arras.

Berlin, via Wireless to London.—German troops stormed and captured advanced French trench northwest of Beausejour in Champagne region.

London.—London evening papers unanimously predicted German reply will not prove acceptable to U. S. Characterized Berlin communication by such headlines as "Germany's Hypocritical Reply" and "An Amazing Offer."

Rome. — Determined attempt to wreck the defenses of Goritz. King Victor Emanuel, accompanied by his cousin, Duke d'Aosta, speeding up and down Italian front, personally directing the artillery fire and encouraging his troops.

Italian airmen are raiding Austrian front without challenge from enemy's aviators. Railway station at Nabresina has again been bombarded from air.

Heavy bombardment of Platzwise fort in Upper Ansel valley continuing and part of Austrian work in flames.

During vigorous attack north of Goritz 65 Dalmatians threw up their hands in token of surrender but were instantly made targets for Austrian riflemen; 28 killed.

Petrograd.—Grand duke's armies not only have halted Austro-German advance on Lublin, but have taken offensive and are driving Mackensen back on wide front extending from mouth of river Podlip to south of Bykhawa.

Fighting on several fronts in Poland west and north of Warsaw.

London.—Steamer Erlesmere submarined with loss of one life.

Athens.—Allied warships, accompanied by air flotillas, conducting systematic bombardment of Asla Minor coast town from gulf of Adramyti to gulf of Phoenix. Smyrna, Vourla and Aivali have been heavily shelled.

—TILL THE BOSS WENT AN' WIRED.
ON THIS FOURTH YOU TOO ARE FIRED!

"While Etta and I were going to town on a train this morning the conductor came along and looked at us as if we hadn't paid our fares!"

"Well, what did you do?"

"We looked as if we had."