

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Geo. K. Wentworth, Chicago lumber dealer, adjudged incompetent in California, resisting bankruptcy. Insists he has $4,250,000 to pay $1,500,000 debts.

Anna Urwanawich, gypsy, held to grand jury on larceny charge.

Edw. Kubat, 20, held, Robbery charge. When he broke former promise to reform Elizabeth Clobesy, his sweetheart, committed suicide.

John Ryberg and Louis Walzien placed on trial after being in jail since March. Charge stealing Sears-Roebuck goods from freight car.

Mrs. B. S. Striblen suing Wm. S. McCrea, treasurer People's Gas Co., and C. K. G. Billings for $25,000

Minnie Seltenreich, telephone girl, granted $20,000 verdict against Chicago Telephone Co. Shocked by current.

John McGillen, driver, exonerated in death of Marina Edwards, 5, who fell under wheels.

Warren Orne suing Wm. H. Cotter. Claims injury by Cotter's auto.

C. T. Davies, former state factory inspector, employed as special examiner by civil service commission.

Jas. Abbott, 73, 500 S. Clark, found dead in room. Heart disease.

Policeman James Tollen, 50th st. station, about to go to New York, given cigarette case and bathing suit by comrades. Doesn't smoke. Suit way too small.

John Kaptarski, 4835 Loomis, fined $100 for carrying revolver.

Mrs. Valeria Havlin, accused by Mrs. Angelina Strong, 3863 Ellis av., of stealing $25,000 worth of jewelry and $125, in custody in St. Louis.

Miss Chyra Hindol, waitress; Jack Butts, chef, burned. Building damaged. Birchmont hotel, 1456 Fargo av., gas range exploded.

Jos. Beloha, 2953 S. Avers av., ordered to return canaries taken when he says Mrs. S. Gettle, 3131 Arthington, did not pay milk bill. "Couldn't sing, anyway," said Beloha.

Emil Kisch ran amuck in Desplines station. Smashed chair over policeman's head; cut Dr. Henry Steible with knife. Now in strait jacket.

Wm. Sakison, 1034 W. Harrison, 18 months, dead. Fell from stepladder. Mrs. Celia Seiner, 2117 Warren av., injured. Hit by car. Madison and Franklin.

Michael Carnecki freed by coroner's jury for killing Jos. Salapatek in Phoenix, Ill., saloon, Saturday. Self defense.

Helan Schoeniger, 8, 7510 Malvern av., lost in Lincoln park. Found at W. 12th and 42d av. Walked there.

July grand jury returned indictments against owners of 6 blind pigs.

Harry Piper, named in suppressed indictment, arrested. Advertised for partner with $750.

Matthew Egreshez and wife, proprietors of saloon at Webster and Lewis, fined $50 for refusing to close place.

New survey to be made to discover whether saloons on Devon av. are encroaching on dry territory, 4-mile radius surrounding Northwestern U.

Capt. O'Brien of Cottage Grove av. station ordered saloonkeepers and cafe owners to stop using red lights. They attract undesirables.

Lady Duff Gordon arrived in Chicago to superintend the opening of dress shop in former residence of Franklin McVeagh, 1400 Lake Shore drive.

Mike Magersk, 8, found lost by Desplines st. police. Bathed in prisoners' drinking water. Later parents claimed him.

Gallows shipped from Cook county jail to Joliet for execution of Frank Repetto Friday.

D. C. Pendry, Cincinnati, arrested for mashing. Attempted to suicide by butting iron bars of cell. Fined $100 by judge.

Head of Florida Everglades Land Co. says company is open for probe. Blames federal politics for investiga-