

BASEBALL—SPORTS OF ALL SORTS—BOXING

The 200-mile walking race promoted by Dan O'Leary, scheduled to start last night at White City, was postponed until tonight because of poor condition of the track. Twelve plodders will start in the grind.

Jack White and Jimmy Travers fought ten rounds to a draw at Chicago Heights. White was off to a bad start, but rallied in the closing rounds and pulled to even terms.

Good bouts occurred in the amateur show at the Sportsmen's club last night, the feature being a knockout scored in the 125-pound division, Curtis Peters, a Gilmore protege, putting it on Tim Givney.

Chic Evans will be unable to compete in the western amateur golf tournament at Cleveland. Rush of business prevented the present title holder making the trip. The elimination of Evans makes the chances of California's crack quartet look good.

Maurice McLaughlin was given a hard battle by John Strachan in the national tennis tournament at the Panama-Pacific exposition, requiring five sets to win. Scores: 3-6, 6-2, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2. Johnston defeated Griffin in the other semi-finals match and will meet McLaughlin in the finals.

Stagg field was crowded today with athletes limbering up for the big meet tomorrow, when a track and field team will be selected to represent the middle west in the National A. A. U. championships at San Francisco, August 6 and 7.

All the best men of athletic clubs and colleges within a few hundred miles of Chicago will compete. Judging by the work of the athletes in a meet two weeks ago, records will fall tomorrow and the west will again prove superior to the east in a majority of events.

Sam Langford fights Jack Thompson 15 rounds in Denver tonight.

There will be quite some ruction on the South Side beginning tomorrow, when Bill Carrigan brings his second-place Red Sox into town for five battles in four days with the Rowlandites. There is a bare possibility that the Bostonese will be leaders when they reach here. Should they cop a couple in Cleveland today and the Sox suffer defeat from the Mackmen the top two positions in the race would be reversed.

Carrigan has a bang-up ball team at the present time, playing a game much similar to that of the Sox. A good pitching staff is backed by excellent fielding and sound batting.
