

given by parents. Then boy lost job and was pinched for speeding.

H. M. Byllesby & Co., Chicago firm, gets control of several small Trans-Atlantic lines between New York and Sweden and Russia.

Circuit and superior court judges yesterday began drawing new salary of $12,000 year.

Detectives had a hard time arresting woman on Grand Trunk train. Passengers tried to beat them up.

Frank Repetto, in Joliet ready for execution as murdered, gripped by frenzy of fear. Drove everyone from cell last night.

Eric Nordstrum, 367 W. Chicago av., has filed about 100 lawsuits in 8 years. Has won none.

Austin folks held jolly picnic at Glenwood park.

Carl Meyer, arrested after he admitted story he told to police was false, discharged in court. Hazel Anderson, whom he claimed took $1,400, also discharged.

Englewood police asked to search for Mrs. Margaret Coper, 23, 948 W. Marquette road, who disappeared Tuesday.

Dunning O'Brien Brown, born in 50th st. station. Named after doctor and polioeman who assisted in birth.

D. C. Bridges, 70, arrested for failing to pay $1.50 cab fare. Paid $1 and was released by police.

E. Wakefield, farmer, Clinton, Ill., had pocket picked of $170 in Lincoln park. Left for home.

Michael Rausch, just in from New York, had pocket picked of $340 on 64th st. car.

National legislative rivers and harbors committee viewed harbor. Said they would boost for breakwater and improvements.

Police looking for Clara Bohrisch, 17, 3819 Wallace, whose mother fears she has eloped.

Board of education yesterday refused to collect claims of loan sharks against teachers.

Asa Bacon, sup't of Presbyterian hospital, to tell this afternoon how milk may be kept sweet for week by hydrogen peroxide.

Luther Pollard, colored, 5231 S. Wabash, arrested for selling movie machine through mails when he had no machine.

Gottlieb Landis, Riverview, indicted as blind-pigger.

Gov. Dunne and official party left for expositions.

Sam'l Aischuler, Aurora, appointed chairman waterway commission. Salary $6,000.

$7,262,535 assessment roll filed. First step toward completing boulevard link.

Miss Marie Stavnes, domestic, 6306 Wayne av., suicide. Gas.

B. J. Smith, student Chi. College of Medicine and Surgery, married Charlotte M. Pearson, hospital nurse.

Jos. W. Paul bound and robbed in livery stable, 227 W. 23d. $95.

Dr. Hugo Pribyl, 5422 Ingleside av., informed that cat which bit him had rabies. To take Pasteur cure.

Joseph Morharda filed suit for $1,000,000 against Eidolodrome Co., a corporation which was going to establish string of movie houses.

Mrs. Cornelia Winn, public school teacher, wants divorce on cruelty, desertion and statutory grounds. Also suing husband for $25,000 for injuries.

Four derricks started to drive 9,200 piles upon which will rest the Field museum.

D. M. Pfaeizer, member of board of assessors, says hereafter men getting $100 a month or less will not be assessed on their property.

Mrs. Mary Gugo, Joliet, arrested with 2 children at La Salle st. station. Ran away from cruel husband. To be sent back.

Exact amount of money missing under Administrator Francis Sullivan's term of office as clerk of probate court to be found out today.

Sophia Rochowiaka, 20, 1502 W. 17th, dropped dead in front of home.

C. H. Fanthan, piano tuner, Burlington, Wis., registered at loop hotel,