

open five-game series. Sox have a game and a half lead and can stay ahead by winning two.

Eddie Murphy, outfielder, was purchased by Comiskey from the Athletics, to be used as lead-off man.

Tinker and his Whales are at last home, after one of the most successful months a ball club ever enjoyed. By rushing the opposition viciously the North Siders, in a trifle over three weeks, have jumped from sixth place to a comparatively secure hold on the top rung of the Gilmore ladder.

Black pitched against St. Louis yesterday and showed he is ready for a whirl at regular duty. He allowed five hits in eight innings.

Two games with Brooklyn today inaugurated the home stand.

In the next few days anything can happen to the Cubs. Including the double-header this afternoon they have five games with the leading Phillies, and the series will mean tough going. Moran has Alexander in shape to use in two of the five games, the Sunday break making this possible. And Rixey, Demaree and Mayer has been consistent winners recently, more effective than the majority of pitchers the Cubs have found difficult to solve.

Going into this fight Bresnahan is by no means sure of his pitchers and will be glad to win two games.

Hughes pitcher last eight innings of 15-inning game for Braves and allowed Pirates one single. Adams was effective after relieving Mamaux in eighth. Schmidt got four hits and Evers, Magee and Moran three each.

By whipping Cincinnati Brooklyn made its record 15 won, one tied and two lost since the team went home in last place June 30. Appleton and Dell puzzled the Reds. O'Mara's batting was a winning factor.

Walter Johnson finally had an easy game, Washington hitting Brown pitchers hard. Moeller batted three hits.

Buffalo was outbatted, but nosed Pittsburgh in ninth-inning rally.

NICK CULLOPS BRINGS KANSAS CITY FEDS UP

CULLOP

The astonishing success of the Kansas City Feds this season has been due, more than to anything else, to the remarkable pitching of a corps of men classed as second raters when the season started. Nick Cullop, who was rated low at Cleveland and slated for the minors, has pitched remarkable ball and is now classed as one of the best.

NOT AMBITIOUS

The teacher sent the son of a Newburgh politician before the schoolmaster for a serious misdemeanor.

"Young man," said the schoolmaster, as he gazed severely at the youth, "do you know that you are a candidate for a severe whipping?"

"Yes, sir," replied the boy, "and I hope I'll be defeated."—Newburgh Journal.

DO YOU INHALE?

Indeed, Clarice, I think it's shocking that you should smoke like this; and yet

(Believe me, truly, I'm not mocking) I'd like to be that cigarette,
