

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:28; sunset, 7:23.

$1,000 bond of Chas. F. Mills, charged with confidence game, forfeited when he did not appear in S. Clark police court.

Man arrested for insulting women in street car. Gave name J. A. Wilson, Hyde Park hotel.

Second Regiment, I. N. G., 950 men, leave for annual encampment, Camp Dunne, Dixon, Ill., tonight.

Mrs. Edna Summerville, 23, 1116 S. Leavitt, bride of a few months, arrested Ogden, Utah, police say husband stole valuables from aunt.

Martin Hess, 3260 Fullerton, detected two men stealing stained glass from office. They fled.

Dr. W. S. Pickard appointed health officer Maywood, succeeding Dr. Mary Harper.

Geo. Baldwin, 19, 1333 Ardmore, alleged to have attempted to pass worthless check.

Maywood will hold special election Aug. 7 to vote on special $26,000 paving assessment.

John Ryberg and Louis Wenzel found guilty of breaking into boxcar.

W. E. Thorne, 7400 Harvard av., appointed attorney to city treasurer. Salary $2,500.

Saloon license Greniewick & Zakrzewski, 12105 S. Halsted, and pool-room license, A. Taylor, 4014 S. State, revoked. Gambling charged.

Will recount ballots cast in defeating $1,000,000 bond for completion of County hospital.

O. L. Hopson taken into custody for federal officials of Portland, Ore. Charged with defrauding mails. Is officer of U. S. Cashier Co.

Government closed case against Pietro Mecca, alleged writer of Black Hand letter. Judge Landis' court.

Mrs. Leah Lalonde, 718 N. Clark, in serious conditions result of fall three days ago.

Max Desmond, taxi driver, 6026 Blackstone av., injured spine when three autos and street car crashed.

Carl Nelson, 410 W. Oak, dismissed when Mrs. E. England, 902 Townsend, who accused him of attack, did not appear in court.

John Stukel, 606 Belden av., and Benj. White, 638 N. St. Louis av., arrested. Charged with stealing canned goods from Reid, Murdoch & Co.

Otto Danielson, 20, 2709 Leland av., dead. Street car fractured skull.

After week's effort still but 8 jurors selected in Judge O'Connor's court to try alleged police grafters.

Victor Castellazzi, 709 N. Dearborn, asks police to search for Geo. Cobling, roomer, who disappeared about time $115 cash and jewelry did.

Twenty-three Montenegrins and Serbs, witnesses in neutrality violations cases, released on own recognition.

North Shore Leader, Rogers park, made first appearance today. Fred Hunt editor. Will compete with North Shore News, published by Harry Hunt, a brother.

Patrick Fergus, 161 Chester, bought bottle wine. Son Thomas, 6, got bottle. Dead.

Police interrupted merry party of men and women in bachelor apartments, 4643 Malden av. Men said they had picked up girls in Green Mill Gardens.

Louis Lumley, 19, E. Marquett rd., kicked in stomach by horse. Internal injuries.

Council committee on harbors investigating feasibility of acquiring riparian rights along Lake Calumet.

E. H. Richardson, 18, colored, drowned, foot 26th.

Two men arrested in Toulon, Ill., confessed theft of J. H. Humphrey's auto, 6912 S. Park av.

Police probing story of Elizabeth Thorbold, 342 Swan, who said she was taken to picnic and attacked.

Judge Fisher fined four Woodlawn druggists for selling liquor.

Harry Dobbins, pinched while eloping for speeding, discharged by judge.