

WAR BULLETINS

Petrograd.—Russian arms withstood 3 furious attacks by Field Marshal von Mackensen's German troops near Hrubiesof and swept forward recapturing 3 villages from Germans.

Germans continued to attack practically throughout territory from Wieprz to the Bug.

Rome.—Venice Gazzettino reports thrilling battle between Austrian aeroplane and Italian troops at Verna in course of which aeroplane came near destroying famous tomb of Juliet, known to world through Shakespeare's play, "Romeo and Juliet." One incendiary bomb dropped so close to tomb that the ground nearby was torn up.

Aeroplane which flew the tri-color of France despite fact that it was an Austrian flying machine, dropped 5 incendiary bombs. One fell within the barracks at Camposiore, causing slight damage.

NEW WITNESS GIVES HOYNE TICKET EVIDENCE

Purser W. E. Craig of the Roosevelt tells a damaging story against the Greenbaums. Craig is a new witness of Hoyne's.

"While I was aiding in rescue work, W. K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation Co., sent for me," said Craig. "He told me to go to the Eastland and get the tickets from the purser.

"I locked them up in the private locker in my office. Later Greenbaum sent me on an errand. I returned in 30 minutes and found Moses Greenbaum, brother of Pres. Greenbaum, with the bag of tickets. I don't know how he got into my private office. He got the locker key from the assistant purser.

"Soon the president, secretary and a director of the company came in. One asked if they were Eastland tickets. Another said, 'Yes there are 2,412 of them.'

"I don't know which one made the remark. All the time this was going on people were struggling in the water."

OIL KING'S DAUGHTER NAMED IN DAMAGE SUIT

Mrs. Harold F. McCormick, millionaire patron of art, knows more about art than she does about real estate. That's how it happens the daughter of John D. Rockefeller is being sued in Chicago for $10,000. She sold a house for $7,500—the valuation being made by her agent. The purchaser says the house is worth only $5,000 and sues for $10,000 damages.