

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Jas. Fire fined $100 and sentenced to 30 days because Savoy hotel, 705 S. State, violated morals law.

H. C. Hackney expelled from Board of Trade under charge that he reported false sales.

Ethel Dingbat and six others fined $3 for being inmates of 3517 S. State. Belle McKing fined $10 as keeper.

Hymen Berman, 18, 562 Maxwell, held. His motorcycle hit Mrs. Antonio Worski, widow, 2254 W. 23d, breaking thigh.

Majestic Bldg. Co., owning Majestic hotel, 29 Quincy, asks injunction against State's Att'y Hoyne collecting unpaid 1913 taxes.

W. F. Schultz, fireman Engine Co. No. 8, grabbed runaway team. Dragged block before hme stopped them.

Mrs. Catharina Scholle, 3921 Wilcox av., awakened by noise in apartment. Telephoned police. Chas. Gordon, alias Chas. Smith, arrested.

Swedish club gave luncheon in honor of departure of Ira Nelson Morris to resume post as minister to Sweden.

Larcus Walker, 14, deaf mute, Hattiesburg, Miss., rode "banana special" freight to Chicago. Intended taking short trip. Trapped in car.

Prof. Thos. A. Knott, U. of Chicago, says Chicago may become the standard city of country for spoken English, replacing Boston.

Annie Allikus, 1815 S. Union av., who deserted her bridegroom, Jas. Venckus, on morning of wedding, returned next day. Said she wanted to think it over. They will be wedded this week.

B. L. Newton, ass't sec'y of treasury, in Chicago last night. Said he favored 12-story postoffice for Chicago's West Side.

Twelve ill at Eli Bates settlement house result of eating toadstools they thought were mushrooms.

Sheriff John E. Traeger appointed 8 deputies to guard Wheeling township to aid prevention of hoof plague.

Maisie Weston, chorus girl, says Geo. Blymas, clerk Eastwood hotel, took her to hotel under cover of revolver. Swore out warrant for him.

Thirteen battalion chiefs of fire dep't took examination for ass't fire marshal.

Parcel post matter may now be insured up to $100, instead of $50.

J. P. Doyle, New Century hotel, knocked down by auto. Skull fractured.

Mrs. Christina Ortog, Sebewaing, Mich., died in home of Mrs. M. Weismiller, 1507 Mohawk, of blood poisoning, result of alleged self-performed illegal operation.

Miss Ray Price, "Maid in America" actress, rescued from drowning, by Jas. Wrenshaw, Wilson beach life guard.

Mandel Sitron, 10, 1243 W. 14th, hit by delivery wagon. Legs broken.

Margaret Ver Valin, 330 Garfield av., held up by youth. Hit her over head with gun. Grappled with him. Purse dropped, spilling $200. Youth fled, firing gun. Got only $2.25.

West Park civil service board elected Wm. F. Grower president and Edw. Mullin secretary.

Patrick Condon, 1122 E. 56th, disappeared from Mercy hospital, attired in blue bathrobe.

Nicholas Stubenrauch, 1534 W. 61st, fined $25 for stealing loaf of bread and pound of butter from Rosenberg's department store, Evanston.

Mrs. Catherine Rossiter, 25, 3054 Calumet av., swallowed poison tablets. Will recover.

B. B. and G. B. Levee, proprietors Indiana theater, 219 W. 43d, bankrupt.

Sam Rosenbaum, 2155 Evergreen av., held on perjury charge by federal officials. Charged he misrepresented facts regarding surety bond.

Edward McElligott, 14, 507 W. 42d, killed, 44th st. railroad tracks.

Sandy, dog belonging to Mrs. E. L. Hasler, Lake Forest, committed suicide because his collar was given to