

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:10; sunset, 6:23.

Miss Margaret Gallery, who severed artery breaking window to enter home of Mrs. Raymond McGuire, 7032 S. Irving av., discharged. Woman refused to prosecute.

Miss Irene White booked as keeper of alleged disorderly house, 501 N. Dearborn.

Forest Park to vote Sept. 7 on granting franchise to Chicago and West Towns Ry. for extension of lines.

Beatrice Allen, actress, fails to identify Wm. Voelker, Crown Point, as man who stole her $22,000 diamonds.

Twenty society women may be arrested for scheming to defraud government by undervaluing imported furs.

Sen. J. Hamilton Lewis says hydraulic power magnates are delaying state water way project.

Hoof disease may prevent holding of fashionable Onwentsia club horse show.

Dog created panic during movie show at Methodist camp meeting, New Lenox.

Injured by autos in loop: John Galli, 223 W. Ohio; Max Berustein, 9228 S. Paulina; Sylvia Sangerman, 4157 Armitage av.

Miss Florence Johnson, 2128 Fletcher, fainted in loop when she saw man wearing bloody bandages.

Sam'l Alschuler will assume duties as federal judge in few weeks.

Catherine Winkleman suing Dr. B. A. Rotzoll for $15,000. Charges unskilled treatment of teeth.

Angeline Bangor, 14, 724 Mather, told Judge Moran that Jas. Petrolis, ice cream man, Polk and Halsted, tried to bug and kiss her. Arrested.

Martin Glendon sentenced to 15 days for selling intoxicants to minor girl in Lynch's saloon, 236 S. Halsted.

Frank Greenwich, 2031 W. 23d, held to grand jury on forgery charge.

Acting Battalion Chief C. C. Persons and Chauffeur John Wirfs, 9th battalion, had narrow escape when their auto hit truck.

F. H. Gansbergen, former president Lincoln park board, recovering from serious operation.

Jas. Kelley, 2, 5530 S. Bishop, severely burned at bonfire.

W. M. Krimbill, 9412 Longwood drive, kidnapped his children from mother in hopes it would lure her home.

Mrs. Mary Gallagher, 27, 2441 W. 24th, and 4 children, oldest, 6, accused of passing worthless checks.

Adolf Stein, saloonkeeper, killed self at home, 2218 Washington blvd. Gas.

"Aunt Elizabeth" Dodd, 50, 2331 Superior, who tried to slide down a rope from third apartment so she could go to movie after daughter had locked her in, dead. Rope broke.

E. G. Foreman, prominent Chicago banker and Jewish philanthropist, dead in San Francisco.

Jacob M. Loeb's friends want Hebrew Institute strikers to mediate.

Democrats can get no city jobs and civil service is a farce under Mayor Thompson, complain Democrat leaders.

Federal control of manufacture and sale of war munitions urged at meeting of Chicago chapter, Friends of Peace.

"Runaway" grand jury which investigated juvenile court, finds it O. K.

Chas. G. Dawes, president Central Trust Co. of Illinois, warns against evils that may arise with inflation of credit in nation.

"I started stealing because rich people are crooked and don't give the poor a fair show," said Miss Alfreda Nelson, "nursemaid raffles," trapped by detectives. Only in American four years.

Mrs. Geo. Fisher, widow, and two children evicted from room, 1814 N.