

John that night, arriving at the door of the flat, was amazed to hear the crowing of a child within. Angry for a moment, he mastered himself and went in sternly. Nora's arms were about his neck in a moment and stifled his protests.

"John, it isn't hers!" she cried. "And what do you think? She's promised to be godmother at the christening, and—and the five thousand is going to the baby for her education, and—oh, John, we're going to keep her, and there's a chance of a position for you as manager at their country home,—and—and we're going to keep her, John!"

—o—o—
ON THE PHONE

"Hello! Is this Miss Bugg?"

"Yes."

"This is Mr. Gubb talking."

"Oh, yes."

"My roommate and myself thought that you and Miss Seitz might want to go to the movies with us this evening."

"Why—we had something—hold the wire just a minute."

(What he thought they said)

"Say, Annie, this handsome Mr. Gubb wants to take us to the movies. Don't you think we had better break this theater date and go with him? He's so fascinating!"

"Why, yes—I'd much rather go with him."

(What they really said)

"Annie, this mutt Gubb wants to take us to the movies. Do you think we had better accept or take a chance on some one else. It's rather late."

"Oh, I suppose we may as well do something."

"Yes, Mr. Gubb—we'll be delighted to go."—Michigan Gargoyle.

—o—o—
TAILORED MAID NOW WEARS TAILORED LINGERIE
By Betty Brown

A tailored suit isn't necessarily an affair of serge or gaberdine. Some of the newest "tailor-mades" are of Italian silk, nainsook or cotton, lawn or crepe, for lingerie, as well as street clothes, are now made on tailored lines.

One of the stunningest models I've seen was designed for the Fashion Art League of America fall fashion show, and it was made in white Italian silk, though I think it would be just as effective in some of the cotton fabrics. The yoke line and the narrow shoulder straps are hemstitched and there isn't a frill or gather to relieve its primness. It's cut in one piece and trimmed with tiny pearl buttons at the knee and tiny buttons are used to fasten it. The knee is gathered in blומר effect on an elastic band.