

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:24; sunset, 6:10.

F. D. Tellin says wife tried to massacre him with butcher knife. Suing for divorce.

Teachers say war has made more pupils want to study languages.

Police looking for 2 boys who stole auto of William Schuchard, 309 Lunt av.

Peter Krakowski, arrested after Beatrice Byron was found drugged in home, 2339 W. 21st, held for trial.

Ben Bertsein, 1137 S. Francisco av., arrested for collecting $15 on promise of job.

Mayor appointed 3 men as real estate experts for board of local improvements.

Stabley Salty, 819 Lessing, fined $50 for annoying girl.

John Kita, Northwestern "L" repairman, found dead near third rail.

Sam Levine, Max Rosenblum's clerk at 1284 Milwaukee av., fined $10 for running customers into store.

Chas. Leggett, Evanston chief of police, presented with latest in revolvers by friends. Chief Healey made speech.

David Van Boven, 1207 N. Central av., fined $50 in Oak Park for selling bottled beer without license.

Harris Pye and Marshall Cotter, 1041 Osgood, arrested in Evanston for shoplifting.

Sewerage system at Oak Forest infirmary to be inspected tomorrow by county commissioners.

Mrs. Fred Evans wants separate maintenance from husband. Says he always wanted to argue and when she wouldn't he'd knock her down.

Russell Pethrick, murderer of Mrs. Ella Coppersmith and son, to be tried Sept. 16.

Al Pfingst fined $10 for stealing woman's pocketbook. Ran into home of detective fleeing from mob.

Robt. Star, 906 W. 38th, held to grand jury in connection with robbery of branch office of Schlitz Brewery at 5959 Lowe av.

Mrs. Loretta Newcastle, Atlanta, Ga., says irresistible impulse made her steal. Recently ill. Discharged.

Mayor Thompson met by delegation of 20 firemen who asked him to have civil service call examination for lieutenants. To hold one in October.

Sylvia Baskind, 4, 1206 W. Chicago av., played with matches. Badly burned.

Home of Chas. Stillman, 4544 Greenwood av., $1,500 in clothing and jewels taken.

Judge Flanagan hearing complaints against night work in Stromberg Motor Service Co.'s plant, 64 E. 25th. Too much noise.

Two more suspects arrested and released by police who are still searching for slayers of Helen Petruska, girl found dead in swamp.

Three horses in fire department 10 years to be sold when motor truck is installed at Truck Co. No. 7.

25 young men of Highland Park applied for admittance to municipal rifle club.

Sup't Young asked school management committee to open night schools on Oct. 12.

When Harry Poots announced that he thought he would marry Mary Murphy, 2117 W. Jackson she announced intention of entering convent.

Mrs. Henry Roche, 313 E. 60th, attacked man who partly identified son as one of pair of bandits who held him up. Roche proved alibi.

Emery Motor Livery Co. slashed rates below those established by the council. First mile 40 cents, additional half mile 10 cents.

Eugene Lies, $5,000 a year mg'r of the United Charities, back from vacation.

Chicago Plan commissioners met Mayor Thompson in office to discuss federal move for new postoffice.

Orders may be issued telling farmers and stock raisers to keep herds