

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:40; sunset, 5:43.

Dominick Ross, 1103 S. Morgan, booked for burglary on complaint of Santo Basso, 360 W. 116th, who says he swiped $800 worth of cheese and sausage from warehouse.

Walter Hager paroled for stealing pig of Jas. Morinedz, 2801 W. 18th.

Mrs. Eva Each, 2284 Blue Island av. and Mrs. Anna Schulchuk, her neighbor, ordered by Judge LeBuy not to meet. When they do they generally scrap.

Nellie Moler, 16, Staunton, Va., told Judge Rooney that Frank Kleinman induced her to steal and lead immoral life.

Burglars got $1,500 worth from Jos. C. Bullock's home, 1454 Dearborn, and $300 worth from Julius Leser's home, 4918 Vincennes av.

Mrs. Amy Taylor, 60, 1451 Farragut, accused of violating anti-dope law by forging prescriptions.

Park board will spend $35,000 improving Holden park.

Daniel Dalton, 2014 Roscoe, accused of posing as policeman and collecting money from people after threatening them with arrest.

Desk Serg't Rob't Johnston, Evanston, gathered in eggs at his home. Put one in pocket. Forgot. Cost went to cleaners.

Magistrates and justices of the peace enjoined from receiving fees or fines.

Cases of Detective Serg'ts Dempsey, O'Keefe and Monaghan, accused of perjury in police graft trial, postponed until Oct. 1.

Gus Steinman, John Hickey and Tillie Welner fined $25 each for selling liquor on boats off Randolph st. Saloon license of Mat Quail, 710 E. 39th, and Jos. Flonds, 1050 W. Van Buren, revoked.

Bird importer denies story that canaries are scarce in Chicago.

Ralph Vance, 18, 4337 Calumet av., tried to commit suicide because mother was in hospital.

Angelo George, accused by Jose Spidel, 726 S. State, of being stick-up man, arrested at State and 12th after gun battle.

Wm. Lippmeier, 3236 Carroll av., found guilty of charges brought by Miss Lillian Frances, 4738 St. Lawrence. $550 ordered paid girl.

Carl Benson, marine fireman, fined $25 on complaint of Mrs. Sarah Brown, 91930 Houston av., and sister, Miss Mary McLean.

Two men who pretended they wanted to rent a room choked Mrs. Ella Shepard, 865 E. 39th, unconscious. Got $60.

Mrs. G. G. Littia, 6928 Creigier av., left purse with $175 in telephone booth. Gone when she returned 10 minutes later.

Fate of Rev. J. S. Ainslie, pastor of the North Shore Congregationalist church, Wilson av. and Sheridan rd., whom a few rich members want fired, will be put up to congregation.

Municipal night court abolished. Did more harm than good, said Chief Justice Olson.

Minneapolis and St. Paul Republicans are still talking Mayor Thompson for president.

D. B. Clarkson, speeding over Indiana road, arrested by country magistrate, tried and fined by him in the middle of the road.

G. H. Burnell, cashier North American Supply Co., 6103 S. Halsted, charged with being $500 shy in accounts, arrested in New York.

Russell Pethick seems least interested person at his murder trial. He yawns and yawns little attention.

First election of board of pension trustees under new pension act ruled illegal because only civil service employees voted.

Licenses of four amateur wireless operators revoked for talking in the air too much.

Wm. Watkin and Marcus Lawborn arrested in Toledo suspected by police of being burglars who got $15