

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 6:26; sunset, 4:42.

Chas. Arens, cigar man, suicided with gun at St. Lucas' church, Belmont and Greenview.

Mrs. C. H. Funk, mgr. Postal Telegraph Co., Evanston, predicted she'd be dead before end of week. Died yesterday.

L. E. Johnson, pres. Norfolk & Western R. R., predicts government ownership because of government's "repressive" policy.

Sam Goldman, cobbler, and wife held to grand jury. Mrs. L. C. Wachsmuth, 5312 Drexel blvd., claims he has her earrings, hid in a pair of shoes he mended.

Police still looking for W. J. Kremer, messenger for Logan Square Trust and Savings bank, who disappeared with $1,600.

Ida Martin, 7, 357 N. Cicero av., decided to help mother by washing dishes. Kettle overturned on self. Badly burned.

Judd Vaughn took out murder warrant for Bernard Compton, Aurora cop, who shot Vaughn's brother in gambling raid.

Police convinced Sam Hoekstra, contractor, suicided. Inquest today.

Fire on roof of old Times bldg., Washington and 5th av., alarmed phone operators few doors west. Small damage.

$50,000 damage accomplished by a fire which destroyed Auto Sales Co., 1424 S. Michigan av. Cause unknown.

Coroner continued inquest over the skeleton of 4-year-old Joe Gasperis, found after 3-months' search. Lost on mushroom hunt.

Mrs. Ella Julian, 1104 N. Dearborn, wants $10,000 from Chas. Peck for assault.

Septic dermatitis, a rare skin disease, caused death of 12-day-old baby at 264 W. 17th.

John Covello, 142 E. 107th, killed in ant of Ingalls-Shepard Forging Co.

Mayor, cabinet and aldermen the guests of honor at Chicago Ass'n of Commerce dinner.

Henry Heller discharged by U. S. commissioner for making false affidavits in test. Called subnormal.

Police arrested man who made threats a year ago in connection with North Side bomb explosion.

Mrs. Josephine Diaza, midwife, held to grand jury for murder. Denies accusation of illegal operation.

Police looking for Mrs. Louise Hrdlicka, 2231 Warren av. Acting strange recently.

Chas. McWitham, 7746 Greenwood, and Joe Mareck held to grand jury for murder of Wm. Osborne, hermit.

Woodlawn Business Men's ass'n discussing plan of starting company of citizen soldiery.

Rob Hull, 508 W. 46th, arrested in connection with Sioux City bank robbery, taken back.

Wm. Whitman, 62, 1102 W. Huron, beaten and robbed of $150 by two men at Sedgwick and Oak sts.

Forest Park bankrupt. Petition filed yesterday. Liabilities exceeded assets.

City Collector Forsberg sent back Barney Grogan's check for saloon license.

Fine Arts bldg. to have exhibit of work of Bridewell prisoners. Held by Chicago Woman's club.

Police to recommend that carnival permits be withdrawn where gambling devices are allowed.

Simon Dawra dead. Fell down stairs at home, 4501 Justine.

Board of Trade expelled John Evans, Pittsburgh broker, for false report to customers.

Joy Lee, a Chinaman, assaulted in alley in back of Rothschild's dept store last night. Can't talk English.

Mrs. Ellen Meany, 3800 S. Halsted, died after tripping over rug.

Prohibition of vehicle traffic in street car tracks discussed by sub-