IT'S RATHER UNUSUAL--

J. J. RUSSELL

for a retired politician to tell the United States government what to do, but J. J. Russell of Memphis, formerly of the Iowa house of representatives, can tell the government just how to stop the slides in the Panama canal. Russell owned a farm on the Mississippi. It slid toward the river at each wet spring. He dug surface trenches across his tract, drained off the water quickly and stopped the sliding. He says the Panama canal sliding can be stopped in the same manner.
