

combination so far as playing talent was concerned.

There will be a battle royal by the organized clubs for the services of Benny Kauff. The Brooklyn outfielder has proven that he can hit good pitching, can run bases and count runs. He needs polishing in fielding, but he is one toppy outfielder who would fit into any club in tomorrow's meeting in Cincinnati for something real. No matter what happens the organized people will try to make it appear that the Feds have laid down.

Charlie White has four fights on the fire for the next month, the purses of which will aggregate within a few hundred dollars of the ten-thousand mark. Therefore, he is not baseball but the Tigers and Red Sox.

Magee will also be scrambled for, and right here in Chicago we have Flack, Mann, Wilson, Zwilling, Fischer, Doolan and two or three pitchers who can make good.

There is a lot more to these peace negotiations than has been published and most of what has been published is the veriest watery bunk. Watch worrying unduly about Freddie Welsh and the championship.

There is talk now of signing the two men for a battle in New Orleans as a feeder to the Fulton-Willard match, but it is quite visionary. The only real offer that has been made so far came from Denver and Welsh lost that because Harry Pollok, his manager, stalled too long.
