

ORLEANS MAID INSPIRES MILITARY STYLES

BY BETTY BROWN

Dame fashion turned back many pages in history to find inspiration for the newest military costume and the Jeanne d'Arc gown is the result of her study.

Mme. Becker of the Fashion Art

League of America, a student of the fine arts as well as a student of the fine art of dress designing, originated the Jeanne d'Arc costume which has already won popularity at the southern winter resorts. As the style is very well adapted to warm weather materials—cash or linen—it will
