

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:17; sunset, 4:40.

William Griffin elected head of Union Printers' club.

Mrs. Geo. Wellington Streeter, wife of Capt. Streeter, will go to trial Feb. 21, in Judge Turney's court, on the charge of attacking Det. Serg't Geo. Cudmore.

Walter Stafford arrested by police while delivering stolen cement.

Mrs. May Bognor, 717 E. 40th, arrested. Police say she had $1,000 worth of jewelry in room. Believed she got jobs in different homes to rob.

W. F. Grower re-elected pres. west park board.

Two women said they were robbed by two men in Harrison & Anderson's saloon, 6311 N. Clark. Mayor revoked license.

Mrs. Katherine Kievit, said to have deserted her children, and David Clink, son of attorney, both of Muskegon, Mich., arrested in room at 16 E. Illinois and booked on serious charge.

Reynold Drews, driver auto truck which killed Mrs. Ellen Murphy, 1102 W. Garfield Blvd., exonerated by jury.

Nick Cyloty, 601 Taylor, found dead in room, victim of small gas heater that consumed all oxygen in room. Windows were closed.

Nineteen members hoisting engineers' union arrested on charge of gambling in their headquarters, 361 W. Madison.

Chi. Retail Druggists' ass'n went on record against patronizing any dealer guilty of selling impure aspirin. J. J. Chawatal elected president.

Auctioneer appointed by Judge Landis to dispose of assets of Truax, Greene & Co., wholesale druggists.

Jos. Augustine, 9024 Ellis av., robbed by men who fractured his skull in overpowering him.

John Sullivan, 18, 1414 Fullerton av., locked up on charge of getting money under false pretense by promising to get boy job for $1.

Wm. Foley, asphalt foreman, charged with overseeing private repair work for which city paid, ordered discharged from city's service after brief hearing before Commissioners Geary and Frazier.

John H. Hood, 4658 Ravenswood av., driver of the Marshall Field auto truck which killed Miss Catharine Goggin, exonerated by coroner's jury. Coroner Hoffman refused to seriously consider the fact that truck had no fender.

Patrolman Richard Dinan, Brighton Park station, before trial board for intoxication. Hasn't made an arrest in four years.

Chicago Medical society to debate on whether or not it is grippe epidemic in Chicago. Say it is old-fashioned pneumonia colds.

Boys rioted in Lexington theater, 715 S. Crawford av. Lottery of skates didn't please them. Weren't enough.

Phillip Phillips, colored porter, being sought by police. Went to work to clean Mrs. Ada Cramer's boarding house. He cleaned them all right.

Joe Gerzner, 55, skilled machinist couldn't find work. "Too old." Suicided with gas.

Ramona Borden, called "poor little rich girl," engaged to Cola G. Parker, att'y.

Hundreds delayed in getting to work by sleet and rain storm.

August Schultz, slipped carrying 200-pound piece of ice into basement. Died on way to hospital.

Policeman Sullivan dragged Mrs. Frances Lapuma, 1440 Plum st., from beneath car at State and Adams. Blinded by snow.

Many brought to hospital suffering from injuries from falls on icy pavements.

Downers Grove holding holiday. Dexter Stanley is 100 years old. In good health.

More druggists being quizzed by Health Com'r Robertson in effort to find manufacturers of fake aspirin.