

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:09; sunset, 4:56.

Alfred Pearson, 226 S. Peoria, dead. Fell on icy walk. Fractured skull.

John Small, Jefferson and Canalport av., dead. Crushed while coupling engine, Grand Central station.

John Kosmala, 2327 W. 12th, died of bullet wound. John Czarnecki, 2029 W. 17th, said he shot him, believing he was going to be shot. Under arrest.

Mrs. Katherine Meetie, 1733 N. Kilpatrick av., badly hurt by street car.

Gertrude Thompos, 3424 Schubert av., dead. Dressed in front of gas stove. Clothing caught fire.

Rudolph Seifert, 5407 Belmont av., locked up on arson charge. Home, 936 Concord pl., burned. Insured for $1,900.

Michigan Sugar Co., Saginaw, asked bureau of immigration to help them get 6,000 workers for sugar season.

Amos Bramhall, 406 S. State, painter, fell from 4th floor, Tremont hotel. Will recover.

County board considering offer of Alling Construction Co. to settle $750,000 claim against county on Oak Forest infirmary contract for $185,000.

Mrs. Louise Becker, 65 Schiller, charges son, Otto Schinker, with stealing jewelry worth $390.

Wm. Olson, 3328 N. Clark, told by 3 young men to hold up hands. Grabbed one, others fled. Released prisoner when others began firing from distance.

Jos. Capidania, 936 Cambridge av., dead. Said to have been shot by Vincenzo Sclarabia, 1102 Cambridge av., who is in hospital from bullet wound delivered by Capidania.

Pioneer Paper Stock Co. bldg., 6 stories, 438-48 W. Ohio, partly destroyed by fire.

Wm. D. Bangs of law firm of Mechem, Bangs & Harper, chosen secretary of Municipal Voters league.

"Uncle Jo" Whitehead, 515 W. Superior, 114 years old, and wife, 88, taken to poorhouse. Both were negro slaves before war. Refused to accept Lincoln's emancipation. Fought for south.

Hearst's Examiner had "heroine" story yesterday about Mrs. Margaret Cooley, 2101 Hudson av. Told of her being thrown from police-chased auto. Policeman Revere said she was just drunk and fell on street. Fined $5.

Rob't Pangan, 19 W. Erie, ate $3.65 worth in Wm. Doris' restaurant, 638 N. State. Refused to pay. Arrested. Fined $25.

Boys found body of unknown man in bushes, Gary. Murder.

Haroldine, 16, daughter of Mrs. Emma Artist, 531 E. 87th, matron at S. Chicago police station, missing since Saturday.

Albert Brown, 5934 S. Paulina, teller West Side Trust and Savings bank, Halsted and 12th, arrested on charge of embezzling $300.

C. T. Mellon, private detective, affinity of Mrs. Anna Matters, confessed he and Mrs. Matters conspired to get spurious baby to let it inherit estate of late Fred Matters.

H. K. Bolton home, 1411 N. State pkwy, robbed Christmas eve of $2,000 in jewels. Robbery not made public till today.

Louis Victor, 1108 W. 61st, diamond broker, was taking $1,600 in diamonds to purchaser. Robbed at alley entrance of gems and $180 in cash.

DAILY HINT FROM BILDAD

If Mrs. Pankhurst's unmarried followers in England would only realize that this is leap year, and get busy with their privileges, conscription might still be avoided. The shortage would probably not be so much in men as in means of transportation to the front. — New York Times.