

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:07; sunset, 5.

John and Charles Czarnecki, brothers, 2029 W. 17th, held to grand jury on murder charge. John Kosmala shot to death Nov. 21.

Clinton Avery and Daniel Walsh, Dunning insane asylum, held in connection with death of patient, Peonard Noll.

Wm. Markel, thistle comm'r Thornton township, found guilty of malicious mischief. Burned load of hay to kill thistles in it.

Michael More and Dr. E. J. Chesrow, 829 Miller, held to grand jury on story told by Miss Anna Casale, 17.

Mrs. Catherine Schers, Wilmette, reported missing to police, returned home. Was visiting friends.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, Zion City head, denounced vanity and wearing of jewelry in lecture to children.

Nathan Goodman, 1245 W. Taylor, freed on larceny charge. Jacob Bernstein, 833 S. Irving av., said he sold bum diamond ring.

Ben Balin, 3106 W. Madison, phoning from W. Chicago av. station, grew impatient and broke phone. Locked up.

Capt. G. W. Stretter, District of Lake Michigan, on trial for assault of detectives sent to arrest him.

Loving note to mother read at inquest over Frank Gulbert, teacher, Chicago Latin school, suicide.

Mid-year graduation at the public schools today; 1,374 finished in high schools; 7,860 in elementary schools.

J. J. Halpin, former chief of detectives under conviction for bribery, released, after five days in jail, on writ granting stay of execution.

Citizens' traffic committee wants park board to prohibit vehicles standing more than a minute on Jackson b'vd., east of river between 4:30 and 6 p. m. Would facilitate rush-hour traffic.

Saloon license of W. Pschlithe, 6001 S. State, revoked. Police reported Sunday violation.

Capt. Collins, Central police station, wants J. H. Kennedy, manager Walters' club, Madison and Clark, summoned to court to answer charge of violating 1 o'clock ordinance.

Coroner's jury ordered Pat Walsh, 3136 Normal av., held to grand jury on charge of murdering wife with a razor. Walsh tried to take own life but has recovered, say police.

Jos. Lateco, 528 N. Robey, jumped off Milwaukee av. car for hat which had blown off. Fell. Skull fractured.

Grand jury investigation of the municipal court probation system by which old offenders gain freedom started today. Hoynes put responsibility for crime on court's probationing of gunmen and crooks.

Several hundred members attended dance of Rothschilds' Social club, at New Morrison hotel, last night. Club plans big ball for Feb. 22.

Delay in getting diagnosis and delay in starting treatment after diagnosis responsible for more deaths than disease, Dr. J. B. Murphy told Physicians' club.

C. C. Griswold, Evanston man who two years ago went to New York to be $100,000-a-year manager of Woolworth's 10-cent stores, dead. Started as clerk in Evanston store.

Mayor restored license to Cadillac hotel, 2136 S. Wabash, one time notorious resort.

Council committee on gas directs corporation counsel to start 144 suits against People's Gas Light and Coke Co. for not furnishing gas that came up to required standards.

Standard Oil Co. raised price of gasoline another cent in Chicago territory, making wholesale price 17½ cents a gallon.

Two women attacked and injured by escaped insane convicts, Mrs. Emma Miller, 57 W. Erie and Miss Josephine Kraus, 2849 Burling.

150 owners of big garages in the United States formed trade union in meeting at Congress hotel.