Sketches show how members of New York society looked when at

"Ball of Gods" they dressed as "gods" and "Goddesses."

New York, Feb. 12.—Ye gods! but New York was pagan last night!

It turned to the worship of other gods.

The votaries of Society and Love and Dollars were turned into the gods and goddesses of ancient Greece, mystic India and Egypt of the Pharaohs.

It happened at the Ball of the Gods, at Hotel Astor, by the Society of Beaux Arts, with the "400" running
