

One lady illustrator, wearing one of last summer's silhouette gowns, upon learning she would illustrate herself if she appeared between the spotlights and the curtain, sat down in a corner and not even the moving picture of "Inbad the Sailor" could move her.

—O—O—
YOU KNOW 'EM

The citizen.

I most abhor
Is he who fights
Old Europe's war.

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The one whose goat

We'd like to get
Is he who asks:
"You fell off yet?"

—Macon Telegraph.

The one that really

Makes me grieve
Is he you says:
"I got you, Steve!"

—Detroit Free Press.

And one whose corpse

I'd like to view
Is he who calls me:
"Hey, there, you!"

—Judge.

We'd like to draw

The hangman's noose
On him who wears
Those gray-topped shooses
(shoes).

—O—O—
WASN'T CALLING HER DEAR

Desirous of buying a camera, a certain fair young woman inspected the stock of a local shopkeeper.

"Is this a good one?" she asked, as she picked up a dainty little machine. "What is it called?"

"That's the Belvedere," said the handsome young shopman politely.

There was a chilly silence. Then the young woman drew herself coldly erect, fixed him with an icy stare, and asked again:

"Er—and can you recommend the Belva?"

BOER LEADS THE BRITISH IN GERMAN AFRICA

GEN. J. C. SMUTS

He has been named commander of the British troops operating in German East Africa. He formerly was a Boer leader.

—O—O—
INDIAN PRINCESS IS ACTIVE LOBBYIST IN CAPITAL

MRS. O. J. KELLOGG

"Egahtahyen" is her name in Cherokee; it means "Dawn." She's an Oneida, and is in Washington fighting for a bill to give the Indians protected autonomous government. The "Dawn" name was bestowed on her for the new life which the red men believe she will aid in bringing them.