

held out my arms to him like a tired child.

softly—

And still I was not satisfied.

He bent, raised and kissed me

(To Be Continued)

WASHINGTON SOCIETY TO SEE PLAY WRITTEN
BY ONE OF ITS MEMBERS

Her play, "The Gypsy Prince," will be given at the Washington Playhouse March 6 and 7 for the benefit of the national capital's poor. Society leaders will take leading parts. Mrs. Thompson is one of the wealthy leaders of the resident circle of Washington's "smart set."