

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 6:13; sunset, 5:48.

Creditable mention given Police-man Mike Grady, 50th st. station, for capturing four men in holdup.

Chas. Smith, 3257 Indiana av., arrested Saturday for following 13-year-old girl. Gave $100 bond. Fined that amount by judge.

Charges that Mike Flannigan had criminal knowledge of St. Paul stamp robbery dismissed by government.

Leather suitcase found in rear of drug store at 5930 Madison st. with body of dead baby boy inside.

Oak Park firemen pulled horse out of reservoir with auto.

Wm. Dowligh, Winfield, Ill., instantly killed on farm of Nick Bowers when clothes caught in belt of traction engine.

Al Olms, Palatine's justice of peace, sued for $5,000 false imprisonment by John Weglarz.

Frank Lovell fined $25 for setting fire to artificial palm in Weinstock & Herr's saloon, 800 W. North av.

Burglars swiped $115 in bank from home of Mrs. Carl Osten, 1101 Wolfram st., while she was washing in basement.

Ed and Herb Hennessey, brothers, 3441 North av., badly hurt when auto truck they were driving was hit by street car.

Mrs. Louise Osborn Rowe says there are plenty of jobs for those who call at city's free employment office in People's Life bldg.

Mayor Thompson says he'll probably have to have 2,000 autos to entertain visitors to our fair city for the Republican and Progressive conventions.

Mrs. Carl Kinsey granted divorce and alimony from husband, mgr. of Chicago Musical College.

Hearing of testimony today against Dr. Eva Shaver, charged with murder by illegal operation.

Chief Healey's weekly figures show crime has decreased 12 per cent over last year's same period.

Robt. Bell, Oklahoma City, found unconscious from gas in Ashland hotel, 322 N. Clark. Revived in hospital.

Hugh Early pawned good deal of jewelry yesterday. Arrested. Said he found it.

Six grandchildren fighting will of Mrs. Cecilia Stolley. Say she was influenced by two sons in making it.

W. S. Jenkins, agent for Church Piano Co., and his company, sued for $50,000 by Sam Moist, owner Union Piano Co., who alleges libel.

Detective Bermingham left for Salt Lake City to bring back forger who passed $1,600 worth of bum checks.

Phil Laub found guilty of trying to conceal bankruptcy assets.

Ira Heltzer, who shot up his own shooting gallery at 434 S. State, held to grand jury at inquest of man he killed.

Roll of tar paper fell from roof of Schoenhofen Brewing Co., 526 W. 18th, and killed Jacob Karcher, roofer.

Frank Bukowski, 10, 8414 Green av., badly hurt by auto on way to school.

Will Orpet, indicted for murder of Marion Lambert, will face court today. Will plead not guilty and ask delay.

Hinton G. Clabaugh, head of information bureau of department of justice, got information on fake British army officer. To turn it over to British consul.

Miss Mary McDowell condemned Mrs. Louise Osborn Rowe, head of public welfare dep't, as spoils politician at meeting of Cordon club.

Geo. Wilcox, 12, 3960 Langley av., ran away from home again. Went to sleep in Montrose cemetery. Woke up last night. Thought stones were ghosts. Found by cop.

Mrs. Nellie Shaw, known as champion woman billiardist, died suddenly in Mandarin Inn, 414 S. Wabash, last night. Police probing.