

OH THUNDER!

BLACK HANDERS STILL BUSY EXPLODING BOMBS

"Practice makes perfect" and the homemade bombs which the Black-handers are exploding in the vicinity of the homes of rich Italians may soon reach stage of perfection when a few lives will be lost everytime one is set off.

The Chicago police department has a large blackhand squad. Ald. Rodriguez recently said that one of the residents of his ward showed him a blackhand letter and when the alderman asked him why he didn't take it to the police the man replied that if he did the blackhanders would know about it before nightfall.

Last night another bomb was exploded in front of the bakery of Dominick Tufano at 628 S. Aberdeen st. The entire front of the two story structure was blown away yet nobody was injured. The same thing has happened several times this winter in other localities.

Tufano said he has received several black hand letters recently.

Miss Mollie Junius, manager of National Tea store, 4355 Lincoln av., ninth victim of "coffee store robber." Got $25 at point of gun.

Deputy sheriffs reported to have shot a striker at Corn Products Refining Co., Argo.