

ONE CENT—NOON EDITION—ONE CENT

ALL TODAY'S NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 201

Chicago, Monday, May 22, 1916

398

LOOKS LIKE REVOLVER- CARRYING LAW IS SHOT TO PIECES

All You've Got to Do Is Become a Strikebreaker and You'll Get a Gun—Then You Can Go Out and Fight
Union Labor and Maybe Pull a Couple
Stick-ups on the Side.

Evidence that the big express companies are importing professional strikebreakers from the east, sticking guns into their hands and sending them out to crush the striking drivers will be presented to State's Att'y Hoyne by the Chicago Federation of Labor.

Hoyne assured the federation that if he obtains evidence that outside gunmen are being brought into Chicago and given permits by Chief Healey to carry guns he will make an investigation. This will be the first time a state's att'y has made a probe of this kind.

Hoyne's reply to the federation's appeal for an investigation of the armed guards tossed a chill into the express companies. Hoyne stated that if, after an investigation, he found that imported professional gunmen were serving as a private army for the express companies he would get after the men who were responsible.

What effect this will have on the orders for strikebreakers placed in