

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:19; sunset, 7:14.

David Bennett arrested by deputy U. S. marshal. Alleged to have forged checks in Canada.

Diversey blvd bridge to be closed Monday morning. Channel to be fixed.

Northbound roadway of Clark st. bridge to be closed Sunday morning. Repairing.

Decision in case of will of Geo. Havill who left most of $250,000 to second wife expected. Contested by two children.

Judge Cooper-freed Veronica McAllen, former Minn. "U" co-ed, who ran away from asylum. Declared sane.

Ed Litt suing Henry Frichtright and Peter Jackson for $30,000 for false arrest.

Viola Kleyhauer, 2, 8450 Odlesby av., fell 25 feet from window. Unhurt.

Mrs. Anna Shishs, 3308 Wallace, told police she fought off burglar who entered home.

After six week search police found Josephine Romejko at 4520 S. Talman av. Father seriously wounded in Russian army. Wants to see her before death.

Attorneys for Ed Saul Leon who may be deported, wants habeas corpus. Hotel proprietor.

E. J. Cerny, Mrs. A. F. Kavina and their mother arrested for trying to prevent laying of gas main in front of home. Probationed.

Police report this: 3 men with guns held up Ed Cohen's shoe store, 3223 Ogden av. Cohen hit all three with chital, but still they get away with $2.40.

Louis Thompson, 714 N. May, gas stove repair man, found guilty of contributing to delinquency of 16-year-old girl. Probationed. Has wife and child.

Phil Skacook, 1505 N. Paulina, dead. Shot by Stanley Redlinski, 1641 Brigham, in quarrel over wife.

Judge Cooper ordered Mrs. Frankie Buchanan, 2116 N. Avers av., to bring 10-year-old daughter into court. Husband alleges she is wrongfully retained.

West Hammond saloonkeeper filing writ of mandamus for issuance of saloon license.

42 merit medals to be handed police department each year is plan of mayor.

J. L. Jacobs, former city efficiency expert, engaged to make saloon survey.

Mysterious person who has attacked so many women in the far south side re-appeared last night and attempted to drag Mrs. Lottie Trewin into prairie. Neighbors heard screams. Man escaped.

Robt. Baird, Park Ridge, thinks his son was murdered. Body was found in river near Louisville.

Frank Jourinsky, 1509 S. Kolmar av., dead. Out of work. Gas.

Will Hulton, 2341 W. Harrison, jumped in river from Randolph st. bridge. Said somebody was after him. To be examined.

Rock Island engine picked up Will Carroll's auto and set it aside when it went dead on track.

Mercury mounted to 90 degrees yesterday. Cooler weather promised.

Will Passett, teamster, sentenced to Joliet for 30 years for contributing to delinquency of stepchildren.

FOREST PARK RIDE CARRIES YOU NEAR TO CLOUDS

Chicago has now the highest, fastest ride in any amusement park right at its door. In Forest Park the Giant Coaster, or Chase Through the Clouds, is said to equal any ride that ever thrilled Coney Island.

Anna Harris, the young Chicago girl who has broken into the newspapers several times with her feats as a swimmer, is the headliner of "Jonah and the Whale," which is being shown at the Water Circus.